Today's Oddest Story. Prescott, Ariz., Jan. 10.—The skeleton of a pre-historic man, of a beautiful shade of green, has been dug up in the residential district here. The verdant coloring was a puzzle until it was discovered the bones had become encrusted with copper. The skull showed unusual cranial development.

"Kidnapper" Dismissed. Pendleton, Jan. 13.—The sequel to the recently aired kidnapping case in Milton was the trial yesterday afternoon in the circuit court of David M. Bennett, who was accused of assaulting Mrs. Joe Sullivan. It was an appeal from the Milton justice court where the defendant was found guilty by Justice Miller and sentenced to pay a fine of $30. The jury, which heard the case yesterday, returned a verdict of acquittal at 6 o'clock, having reached the verdict on the first ballot, it is said.

The trouble arose over a family quarrel. Bennett's son, Albert, and Mrs. Sullivan's daughter are married and have a child. They were not living together and, during the absence of young Mrs. Bennett from her mother's home, the two men called, as they testified, to get the young wife to return to her husband. They testified that Mrs. Sullivan ordered them away from the house whereupon the younger man seized his child. Mrs. Sullivan grabbed it, too, and there ensued a tug-of-war which was brought to an end by the elder man seizing the woman from behind and forcing her down upon a lounge. It was for this act that she charged him with assault, declared that he bruised her arm. Father and son admitted they did wrong in taking the child the way they did. S. D. Peterson represented the defendant and Deputy District Attorney Keater conducted the case for the state.
