Society and Club News

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB NEWS.

A unique and interesting program is being prepared to be given next Tuesday evening in the Neighborhood club room at the public library. The "History of Our Country" will be given in poetry, music and tableaux, and a program of illustrated songs and poems representing the different epochs of our nation's history.

After the program a social hour will be enjoyed enabling the new and old members of the club to become better acquainted. No doubt there will be a large attendance as club members are allowed to bring guests.

A silver offering will be made at this time to the Scholarship Loan Fund. This fund is maintained by the Women's clubs of Oregon for the assistance of young women who wish to go to college but might otherwise be unable to do so and is considered the major work of the federated clubs of the state.

A full program of the entertainment for next Tuesday evening will be published later.

The Neighborhood club met at the club room January 18 and at the close of the business period, a program was rendered, concerning Scandinavia and its people.

The countries of Sweden, Norway and Denmark were included in this topic, which was so successfully handled by Mrs. T. E. Pierson.

The Church and State are so closely allied in Sweden that the ministers are supported from the taxes. Sweden has no saloons; children must be clean before coming into school.

Women were given the right of suffrage in Norway in 1907; must be 25 years old and reside in Norway five years before voting.

The Legend of the Flag of Denmark was of great interest. The Message of Ibsen's "The Master Builder," and a synopsis of this beautiful story, was given in a very interesting manner by Mrs. Stella Ingle. After a careful study of the different characters represented in this story, Mrs. Ingle made very plain the fact that all have just such characters about us in the every day walks of life—even to the "Master Builder" and those that build "Air Castles."

"Greig and his Music" was discussed by Mrs. Archie Bacon. The life of this great composer was beautifully portrayed by Mrs. Bacon. He was born in Norway and his mother, being a noted musician, gave him early training. Later he was a graduate of Leipzig conservatory of music and many of the best musical numbers are from the pen of this great composer.

A piano solo (Peer Gynt, Suite 1, Op. 46) was played by Mrs. W. W. Berry. La Granders well know the efficiency of Mrs. Berry as a pianist and when the selection comes from the pen of so grand a composer as Greig there can be nothing added to express the appreciation of the club.

Owing to a severe cold Mrs. A. L. Richardson was unable to give her vocal numbers but very cheerfully volunteered a description of Greig's wonderful ability displayed in the composing of "Peer Gynt" and what his dramas have meant to the best of American actors. Mrs. Richardson closed her talk in a clever manner by showing what may be expressed by a joke.

During the afternoon the attention of the club was called to the need of feeding the birds during the winter and each member was urged to place food where they will find it.

The O. A. C. Extension course will be held in La Grande the first week in February and the Neighborhood club is planning to aid in every possible way, this helpful work in the community; the next number in the club book—which is Art day—is indefinitely postponed. Date to be announced later.

HAWAIIANS ARE COMING.

The singers and players who are to appear at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening, Jan. 31st, are without a doubt, the most talented that Hawaii has yet sent to us. Carefully selected from among the many excellent musicians of those islands, they were sent to the Panama-Pacific exposition to represent their country at the Hawaiian exhibit. While there they delighted thousands with the quaint, haunting music of their native land. Wishing to see the scenic beauties of America before returning to their homeland, they arranged for a concert tour, thus giving the people of this city an opportunity to see and hear these wonderful musicians.

LODGE AFFAIRS.

Odd Fellows far and near are planning positively on being present tonight when Grand Master John F. Hall, of Marshfield, pays his official visit to the La Grande Lodge. Rebekahs are cordially invited, and a delightful visit is anticipated.

Thursday evening was an important event in the annals of Woodcraft and auxiliary circles. A joint installation, attended by about 150 people, was the chief order of business. The Royal Neighbors installed their offices through Mrs. Garst who displayed keen insight and ability in lodge affairs during the work. Mrs. L. M. Hoyt was ceremonial marshal for the occasion. Bert Oakman, former district deputy head consul, was the installing officer of the Woodman lodge officials. A special feature of the evening was a short drill by the Neighbors' drill team which was polished and clever.

Elks are looking forward to their big comedy performance at the Arcade, in a few days.

Knights of Pythias who belong to Red Cross No. 27 are beginning early to prepare for the annual district convention in Union early in February. The Knights expect to be there with bells on.

A mystery stag is booked for Loyal Order of Moose next Tuesday evening. A short business session will be held followed by a social event. That the officers have something real cute up their sleeves is admitted, but what it is the members will find out only by being there. Blanket warrants have been sworn out for all members and if they are not there, the process servers will round them out. There is no funeral dirge on the program, and laugh and grow fat is the slogan for the evening. The secretary is close and nothing is leaking out as to just what it is there that will be pulled off Tuesday night.

All arrangements have been practically completed for the transportation of visiting Knights to the K. of P. district convention in Union, February 12th. An extra coach will be provided for the Knights of Enterprise and two additional coaches will be ready for the members of Elgin and both delegations will go as far as La Grande on the regular train of that evening. At La Grande a special will be provided and run direct to Union. The special will leave Union immediately after the ceremonies are completed and will run through to Enterprise, permitting all to return home at an early hour.

It is estimated that Enterprise will send a delegation of 50; Elgin 100 and La Grande 50. Wallowa is expected to send a delegation of about 25.

The next regular meeting of Khaled Temple No. 170, D. O. K. K., will be held at the K. of P. hall, La Grande, January 27th.

Spring Style Novelties Are Out

House Coat of Cotton Corduroy.

Jumper Dress of Serge.

last few seasons. There are the daintiest possible combinations, chemises, camisoles, and the numerous other underfittings which go so far toward the success of frock or suit. Silk mull, and other soft cottons vie for favor with the more expensive Italian silk. All of these silks and cottons wash excellently and require no ironing. While the silk garments are at first a trifle expensive for the majority of purses, in the end they are economical; they fit so well, wear so well and are generally so entirely satisfactory.

The Vogue of White.

White will be quite as modish for skirt, suit and frock this season as it has been for the past summer or two. Serge, gabardine and broadcloth are smart for those who can afford more than one frock or suit, but for the practical woman cotton corduroy in its various colors will be far more practical; it may be easily and effectively tubbed when soiled. These corduroys come in the pale pinks, blues, yellows, and similar tones for separate skirts, suits, and sport coats or blouses.

Among the season's novelties is the house coat; it closely resembles the sport coat or blouse, and could in fact be used for the same purposes, but it has been designed for house wear, to take the place, as it were, of the kimono, with the woman who does not care for, or who has not the time to indulge in, the luxury of so complete a negligee as a kimono, or similar loose-fitting house robe. These are being developed in the colored cotton corduroys, and in like corded cottons. They are finished with wide collars, deep, roomy pockets, and are loosely belted. Combined with skirts of white linen, duck, khaki, or cotton corduroy, they are excellently suited to morning wear and the house.

The jumper dress or blouse is one of the most satisfactory notions introduced for many seasons; instead of losing favor because of its general popularity, it is on the contrary, becoming daily more in demand. For business, street, and general daytime wear, the dark blue serge jumper frock combined with an underblouse of crepe de Chine, Georgette, or black satin, is most satisfactory. The fact that the underblouse may be changed, and the frock so varied, makes its appeal to women who like a change now and then, but who cannot afford a great number of frocks.

Satin or taffeta blouses or jumpers, with sleeves of a transparent or contrasting material are still being worn for afternoons and more dressy occasions, combined with skirts of taffeta, faille or satin.
