SOCIETY

One of the week's most pleasant and enjoyable social functions took place last evening when members and friends of Bishop and Mrs. C. J. Black surprised them on the anniversary of their 20th year of wedded life. The guests and honor guests were addressed by Brother George Lyman, who admonished them not to consider the gift of the lovers but the love of the givers and then presented a costly chocolate set to the couple in token of esteem of their friends on the occasion of their china wedding anniversary. A large number of friends and L. D. S. church members in general attended. Refreshments were served at 11:30.

A surprise party was given last evening under the arrangement of Mrs. D. Fitzgerald in compliment to her sister Helen McHugh's birthday anniversary. Guests for four tables at five hundred were present, and at cards high scores went to H. E. Dixon and Prof. Morrow for the men, Miss Clara Smith and Miss Ruth Gormley for the ladies. The guests presented Miss McHugh with some beautiful cut glass ware and many flowers. Mrs. Fitzgerald served refreshments as a "topper" for the enjoyable evening. Teachers of the schools were principal among the guests, Miss McHugh being a popular grade teacher.

At the Domestic Art shop last evening a number of ladies and gentlemen were entertained in a very enjoyable manner by Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Mossman and Mrs. Honeyman. The Balopticon, a machine that projects pictures on the screen in a perfect manner, was used during the evening's entertainment greatly to the pleasure of all present. The scenes shown on the screen were art subjects thoroughly known to many who had studied art and the discussion following as to the merit of the work, the lights and shadows added to the occasion. Refreshments were served, and the party of friends spent one of those "home-like" social evenings.

Last Thursday the W. R. C. spent the afternoon with Mrs. Morgan and presented her with a little token of appreciation of the work she has done the past year. The assembled members enjoyed themselves telling jokes and stories, and later a luncheon was served. Yesterday afternoon a number of the younger members of the W. R. C. gave a surprise to Mrs. Julius Roesch and presented her with a token as she expects to leave for California in the near future. A luncheon was served and all departed after a very social time.

J. G. Snodgrass, commercial club congratulated this week on their silk and linen wedding anniversary.

CLUB NEWS.

Mrs. George Wade, a resident on Washington avenue, was the delightful hostess of the New Idea Embroidery club Thursday afternoon. The next regular meeting will not be held until February 10.

Miss Irene Murphy had the members of the Bilikin club at her home Thursday afternoon, the date being the regular meeting day of that club. Sewing and crocheting occupied the time. Miss Murphy served a unique luncheon of individual chicken pies.

The Owaissa club was entertained in a charming manner this week by Miss Elsie Newquist, one of the regular members. Miss Newquist served a tamale supper at the end of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. E. Polack was in charge of the Thursday Bridge club session this week at her home. The afternoon was spent in playing cards, Mrs. Vincent Palmer scoring highest. Mrs. Polack served delicious refreshments.

Ladies of the Kaffee Klatch had an innovation presented them yesterday when Mrs. E. E. Bragg entertained at cards, rather than needlework which is the customary program for afternoon meetings. Guests for five tables said Mrs. Jones to her neighbor "will I buy my shoes any place but at The United Store." "Why So?" said her neighbor. "Simply because we get more wear and they look better and don't you know—they cost less."

"Never Again"

Ha—Ha—laughingly replied the neighbor, "I found out a long time ago that they sell everything you need for less."

were present, and Mrs. E. E. Kirtley scored highest. A two-course luncheon was served by Mrs. Bragg. The evening division meets next week with Dr. and Mrs. M. K. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Scroggin as hosts, at the home of the first named.

Mrs. F. L. Meyers was a delightful hostess to the Lucky Thirteen club on the regular meeting day this week. Only members attended and cards were played, head prize going to Mrs. J. A. Horan. Mrs. Will French will be the next hostess.

Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman entertained the F. A. F. club a week ago yesterday afternoon in a most pleasing way. At cards high scores went to Mrs. Tom Williamson and Mrs. Guy Ellis. Mrs. Zimmerman served a two course luncheon to her guests.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Safford, who lives on Seventh street, was at home to the F. A. F. club. Mrs. Walter Spencer scored highest at cards. The hostess put a toothsome two-course luncheon before her guests at the proper hour.

The Gaiety club held its regular dancing party last evening at Rex hall. The attendance was good, the music fine and the evening a pleasant one in all respects.

The Leap Year Five Hundred club will be entertained this evening by Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ahlquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Delle Green were pleasant host and hostess last evening to the Intre Nous club, composed largely of West La Grande families. C. S. Dunn scored highest at cards. Mrs. Green served suitable refreshments at the conclusion of play.

The Sons Souci club will meet next week with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pattison.

WEDDINGS AND SHOWERS.

Miss Grace Perrine's coming marriage to Talbot M. Shannon, another La Grande bachelor to fall before Cupid's onslaughts during Leap Year was made the occasion of a pleasant shower Wednesday at the home of Mrs. David Fitzgerald. The shower was a miscellaneous one and many beautiful gifts were presented to the bride-elect. Among those present to enjoy the function were:

Mrs. W. H. Talbert, Mrs. Ed Talbert, Mrs. W. H. Safford, Mrs. J. A. Arbuckle, Mrs. F. E. Shumard, Mrs. H. E. Coolidge, Mrs. P. Biever, Mrs. W. H. Allinson, Mrs. F. Stillwell, Mrs. S. A. Robertson, Miss Lena Robertson, Mrs. E. Harrison, Mrs. Claude Mackey, Miss Ona Coleman, Miss Anna Alexander, Miss Louise Douglass, Miss Nora Arbuckle, Miss Evelyn Richey, Miss Edith Coon.

The marriage of a La Grande man, Cecil Howard, a shop employe, is announced in the Elgin Recorder in the following words:

"The wedding of Mr. Cecil Howard to Miss Nellie Hug was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hug, in this city, at high noon, Sunday, January 16, 1916.

"The wedding was attended only by immediate relatives of the bride and a few close friends of the groom.

"Immediately following the ceremony a sumptuous dinner was enjoyed by all.

"The happy young couple received several useful and beautiful presents.

"The groom formerly resided here but for the past year or more has been employed in the railroad shops at La Grande, in which city the newlyweds will make their future home.

"The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hug and is well known in this section where she was born and raised.

"The many friends join in extending best wishes."

Henry Rittig and Leona Buffum both of Alieed, were united in marriage, January 17, Justice of the Peace A. C. Williams officiating.
