Pioneer of 1845 Is Dead.

Brownsville, Ore., Jan. 26.—Mrs. Sarah A. Hawk died here January 22 at the home of Mrs. Mary Overton. Mrs. Hawk (nee Griffith) was born in Henderson county, Illinois, in 1832, and was 84 years of age. She crossed the plains in 1845 by ox team in a train of 40 families led by Captain Absalom Heckleman. Elder Fisher and the Rev. H. Johnson were among the emigrants and preached on the journey. Mrs. Hawk lived in Oregon City until 1847 when the family came to Linn county and took up a donation land claim two miles south of Brownsville. In June, 1848, she was married to William Hawk, a pioneer from Indiana. At the time of the Whitman massacre Mr. Hawk volunteered and went to Eastern Oregon to fight the Indians. He was one of the party that reburied the victims of that massacre after their bodies had been dug up by wolves. He also fought in the Rogue River war under Captain James Blakeley. His death occurred in 1901 at Fossil, Or.

Mrs. Hawk had 12 children, eight sons and four daughters. Two sons, George and Anderson, and three daughters, Mrs. Mary Marrow, of Pendleton; Mrs. Sadie Mulligan, of Coburg, and Mrs. Nancy Colbert, of Palouse City, Wash.; are still living. There are 16 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held at the First Presbyterian church Monday at 10 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Koehler officiating. The burial was in the White cemetery.

Bad Habits.

Those who breakfast at eight o'clo k or later, lunch at twelve and have dinner at six are almost certain to be troubled with indigestion. They do not allow time for one meal to digest before taking another. Not less than five hours should elapse between meals. If you are troubled with indigestion correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Tablets, and you may reasonably hope for a quick recovery. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.
