Society News

Fairly Busy.

That properly describes what has been going on in a social way the week ending tonight, for there has been much to occupy attention. One of the foremost events, of course was the Scholarship Loan Fund day program at the Library but numerous parties with cards and dances, were booked. But what of next week?

Extremely little else than farmers and homemakers. Women who do things in a social way have their next week's program well defined. There will be the domestic science departments which run all through the week; there will be the state meeting of Congress of Mothers and the Parent-Teachers association; there will be the baby show Friday; there will be this and that, and the other thing, so that who can say there will be the usual card club meetings even?

The women of La Grande, more than the men, have grasped the idea that the coming week is to be a busy one—little room for frivolities. To entertain, to host all branches of Farmers' and Homemakers men and women to disregard all else that the week may be profitable and educational to all alike—LaGrande people can do much to make it so.

The last meeting of the Parkdale club was held at the home of Mrs. C. S. Stilwell in Fruitdale and regardless of the severe weather there was a good attendance and an enjoyable time. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, February 2, at the home of Mrs. Ed Hughes, north of the Palmer mill.

An important notice to ladies of the Neighborhood club has been issued for the benefit of all concerned. It is that Tuesday, February 7th has been chosen as Art Day. A fine program is being prepared and the officers trust that every member of the club will be present. The program will be published in detail in the Observer in the interim. Farmers' and Homemakers' week prevented the day being held as scheduled originally.

The Neighborhood Club entertainment for the Scholarship loan fund last Tuesday evening was a success from every point of view.

The musical numbers and readings were well rendered and together with the pleasing tableaux called forth generous applause.

A spirit of cordiality marked the social hour which followed the program.

The committee feels grateful to all who took part in the program and who in any way helped to make the entertainment a success.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS

Several La Grande friends of the Hutchinson and Withycombe families at Union have received announcements of the wedding which took place there Tuesday when Robert Withycombe took unto himself a wife—Miss Mabel Hutchinson.

Union, Ore. Jan. 25.—A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson in North Union, this afternoon at 5 o'clock when their daughter Mabel, became the wife of Robt. Withycombe a prominent and highly respected young man of this city. The home was beautifully decorated and the wedding ceremony was simple and impressive. It was performed by Rev. H. E. Cullison of the M. E. Church. About twenty five guests were present at the ceremony, only the relatives of the families and a few intimate friends being invited. After the wedding an elaborate banquet was prepared for the guests.

The bride, is a native daughter of this city, having been born and raised here and has lived most of her life here. She graduated from the Union High School in the class of 1910 and since that time has traveled extensively throughout the Eastern and Western States. She has always been extremely popular with the younger set and has a large following of friends. She is the daughter of W. R. Hutchinson a prominent and wealthy pioneer Stockman of this vicinity and President of the First National Bank of this city. He is well known throughout the State.

The groom is one of Union's most popular young men and has been a resident of this city for the past twelve years during which time he was Superintendent of the Eastern Oregon Experiment Station. He has always been prominent in the public affairs and was Mayor for a term of three years. Mr. Withycombe was always one of the most ardent workers for the stock Show and has helped to make that even the great success that it is. He is a graduate of O. A. C. and also spent two years at Urbana Illinois. He is well known throughout Eastern Oregon.

Owing to the pressure of business no wedding trip will be taken at present. The popular young couple have the best wishes of their score of friends for a bright and happy married life.

William J. Devenny of the O-W of this city, and Rose Decious a former La Grande lady were married at Enterprise Wednesday January 19th. Rev. A. J. Adams of the Federated church officiated.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated Thursday evening in this city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robb, when Mrs. Robb's sister, Miss Ethel G. Austin, formerly of Bellingham, was united in marriage to Edward A. Stravens of this city. Rev. Father Driscoll officiated, and only immediate relatives were present. Mr.

Stravens is connected with the Hub store.

Grace Perrine, popular Island City girl, for whom several functions in the way of wedding celebrations have been held, was married last Sunday afternoon to Talbert M. Shannon, well known La Grande harness maker, at the home of the bride's father, N. Perrine, in Island City. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, N. Perrine, Eva J. Harrison and Rev. and Mrs. Sittler were the only witnesses to the home affair. After the wedding the bridal couple returned to their previously-furnished home on Cedar street.

Last Monday evening Mrs. Talbert M. Shannon, a recent bride, was the honor guest at a meeting of officers of Hope Chapter No. 13, Eastern Star. After the regular practice session an informal luncheon was served for Mrs. Shannon who holds the office of Warden in Hope Chapter. C. D. Huffman, worthy patron of the order, in behalf of the officers, presented the bride with a beautiful cut glass dish, and Mrs. Shannon, in accepting the gift, responded graciously.
