POLITICIANS KEEPING BUSY

WALLOWA COUNTY HAS GOOD SWARM

Many See Opportunities to Land Political Jobs in that County

The field of contestants for the spring primary race is filling rapidly. Since O. J. Roe's announcement last week of his candidacy for the republican nomination for assessor, others have declared themselves almost daily says the Enterprise Chief. C. H. Allen, the present assessor, has decided to ask renomination on the republican ticket. Mr. Allen is completing his first term in this office. The democratic side is not represented yet, although there has been considerable talk of John Jackson of Lostine entering the race in that party. He has a wide acquaintance and many friends.

At least five aspirants for the office of district attorney are definitely in the field. O. M. Corkins, now holding this office, will seek renomination as a democrat. He has made an excellent official. Against him in his party will be pitted Walter S. Burleigh, who has resided in the country many years.

On the republican side, W. G. Trill of Wallowa, A. Fairchild of Enterprise and George Richards of Joseph are aspirants for the office, with perhaps more lawyers to be heard from.

It was thought until a few days ago that no election for county judge would be held this year. The statutes and decisions of the courts indicated, at first reading, that Judge C. G. Bilyeu would hold office to the end of the unexpired term to which he was appointed. A closer reading of the court decisions, however indicates that the appointment holds only until the following general election, which will call for an election for this office this year.

Judge Bilyeu does not expect to be a candidate for reelection. J. B. Olmsted, who has served several years in this office, is mentioned as a strong candidate for the republican nomination. He was judge when the court house was built, and that job always is referred to as one of his achievements.

C. H. Zurcher has not made any announcement as to his candidacy for re-election as clerk on the republican ticket. However, if republicans feel his conduct of the office has been efficient and satisfactory, he is willing to go before the party for re-nomination. As he entered the race two years ago only after the party had sifted out all its available timber, and as nothing but good words have been heard of his management of his office, it may be taken for granted he will be a candidate again at the primary. No democrat has entered the lists against him, but of course some will appear.

Sheriff Marvin is in much the same position as Mr. Zurcher. He has filed his office acceptably several terms, and is willing to be a candidate again, so there should be no doubt he will be a candidate H. C. Cramer is a republican candidate for the nomination. He has had experience in the work and has many friends.

Treasurer G. W. Franklin is another strictly eligible candidate for reelection, with a good record for efficient and courteous conduct of his office. His republican opponent is as yet unknown.
