BREAK ROADS FOR CHILDREN

STORM DOES NOT CLOSE THE HILGARD SCHOOL.

Interesting Notes and Personals From Mountain Town.

Hilgard, Feb. 5.—(Special)—Miss Flossie Burnette was a visitor in Hilgard Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott made a flying trip to La Grande Friday. They report sleighing fine.

Miss Leila Cantrell has returned home after visiting for several weeks with friends and relatives in La Grande.

Mrs. Frank Beauchamp has been on the sick list but is better.

Alva Burnette, the accommodating stage driver on the Starkey route, had quite an exciting time yesterday on the down trip digging through snow-drifts.

Giles Harndon was in town last week.

There was a dance in Hilgard Saturday night with a good sized crowd in attendance and a very happy and genial crowd it was. Music was furnished by Mr. Wise and Mr. Kingsland. There will be another dance in two weeks.

Ed Saling was out yesterday with his team and sled keeping the roads open so the teacher and children could get to the school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Beauchamp have been sick with la grippe but are improving.

J. W. Scott, our very energetic and hustling merchant, has been putting up ice for coolness next summer. He has several tons stored.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Endrop are occupying the Jack Riley cottage since they rented the hotel.

Mr. Gerber, the new section foreman, has moved to Hilgard with his family.

Mrs. Holverson's mother, Mrs. M. L. Graham was visiting with her for a few weeks but has returned home to Freewater, Oregon.

Lloyd Hewitt was down from Meacham to visit his mother and Byrl and Harry. He attended the dance while here.

Miss Faye Milligan is teaching our school this winter and she knows how to get the best out of the youngsters. She has about 25 pupils enrolled and they are all sizes and ages but a very bright little bunch and their teacher seems proud of them.

Two of the enterprising townsmen, Mr. Lee Young and Johnny Thompson, are working at the Clyde Stultz logging camp with their teams.

Your correspondent has resided in Hilgard for a number of years and cannot remember the snow being as deep as it is now, in 20 years. It is three feet on the level.

Mrs. Frank Sanford and Miss Marie and Master Gerald have returned home from La Grande where they visited at the Giles Harndon home. They report a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gorley have leased the Home hotel and are serving the public in up to date styles. Mr. Gorley also has a pool hall in the room where the bar was.

Owen Scott has purchased the household furniture of Mr. Smith, the retiring section foreman.

Mr. Wise and family arrived in Hilgard Sunday from Indiana. They expect to make Oregon their home. They are relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kingland.

The newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Walker, have rented the Gorley home and are very cosy, keeping house just like old folks.

Mrs. C. N. Lewis and Miss Milligan went to La Grande Saturday on No. 6 to visit their mother, Mrs. Geo. Milligan. Mrs. Milligan has been in poor health for some time.

Walter Thompson has moved his family to Hilgard from their homestead to be near the school. He is cutting logs for Clyde Stultz.

Uncle Dan Sanford has sold most all of his stock and is taking life easy this winter. He says he is too young to be tramping around in the snow feeding cattle.

Mr. Went-And-Cut-It —Here's Mr. 'Gets-It'

The New Plan Corn Cure That's as Sure as the Rising Sun.

"Glad to meet you!" says the razor to the corn. "I'll bleed for you!" says the corn to the razor. Razors and corns love each other. Corns love to be cut, picked, gouged, salved, plastered and jerked out—they grow faster. Mr. and Mrs. Went-and-Cut-It realize it now—they use "Gets-It" instead—it's the wonderful, simple corn-cure that never fails. Stops pain. You apply it in 2 seconds. It dries at once, the corn is doomed. Nothing to stick to the stocking or press on the corn. It means good-night to plasters, salves, diggers, razors and toe-bundling. You can wear smaller shoes. Your corns will come right off. "Clean as a whistle." Never inflames healthy flesh. The world's biggest selling corn cure. "Gets-It" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

"Why, O Why, Did I Do It? 'Gets-It' for Me After This—If I Live!"

DOCTOR SAVES A BLACKSMITH

Some time ago I was taken with Kidney trouble which caused me to give up my work as blacksmith. I lost my appetite and could not sleep, from the dreadful pains that would come over me, from my kidneys. I was treated by a physician for about three months. He could not help me so finally he prescribed Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I started taking same and before I had finished taking the first bottle I began to eat and sleep better than I had in a long time. I continued to take same until I was entirely cured and took on considerable weight.

I am now back working at my trade again and never felt better in my life. I appreciate what Swamp-Root has done for me and will recommend it to anyone who suffers with their kidneys. When physicians fail to give relief and then prescribe Swamp-Root, they sure know of its merits. I am, Very truly yours,

The Agency That Works For You The Cheapest

Is the Newspaper with a general circulation that carries your business news to every corner of your trading district, carefully and earnestly informing the people of the Bargains you are offering, the Farm that is for sale, the house that is for rent.

Advertising

Is nothing but business news, giving the owner of commodities opportunity to tell the public of their merit and price, and giving the consumer opportunity to read at his own fireside in a very moment's information about intended purchases that would require hours of hard work for himself and the marchants to collect in any other way.

The Evening Observer

Works diligently every day to serve the People in a way that brings good results to both the buyer and the seller.
