LECTURE AT M. E. CHURCH

said the devil," is in the heart of a grateful man!"

So, my friends, whenever you see the dark and heavy leaves of discouragement growing in your mental garden, just remember that underneath them, out of your sight and unsuspected by you may be reaching out of the roots of those evil thoughts that grip and dwarf and sap a man's very character. Pull them up! Uproot them! Or, better yet, let your heart be so filled with gratitude to God that discouragement can find no foothold.

Do you remember what an inspiring example was set for us in that direction by Jesus, when he began his prayer with the words, "Father, I thank thee." And if ever the sower of evil seeds tempts you to believe that you have little to be thankful for, consider the many things which you have this very day that you would not want to do without and then note how few of them were possessed by him who in speaking of himself said, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head." And yet he prayed "Father, I thank thee."

The Bible tells us that the prayer of faith shall save the sick. What may we not expect then of the prayer in which there is not only the abundance of faith but also of understanding, of that essential knowledge of God, of wisdom, of gratitude, of unselfed love? And every Christian Science treatment that is made up of these elements of righteousness as Christian Science treatment should be made up, heals the sick and the sinning and comforts the sorrowing, and with it comes a consciousness of God's protecting care and infinite affection, a consciousness that leads to higher aspirations and purer desires, that makes men and women want to be better and want to know how to be better, that they may share in God's infinite mercy and justice and love.

THIEF TRAPPED BY THOMAS

Bulldog Helms Capture Thief in Palm Beach Cottage.

Palm Beach, Fla., Jan. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. William Thaw 111, of Lakewood, N. J.; Vauter C. Longley, of Providence, and Gingham, the Boston bulldog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Thaw, assisted in capturing a burglar as he was entering the Thaw cottage. The man carried a complete kit of burglar's tools and in a pocket was a bottle of chloroform, which he said afterward he had brought to use on Mrs. Thaw.

"I think you are the man who stole Mrs. Bolton's jewelry," Mrs. Thaw said to the burglar, who made no answer, but looked exceedingly nervous. She referred to a robbery on December 23 of one of the broker's cottages, which has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Tarrin K. Bolton, of Chicago, Ill., when $20,000 in gems was taken.

While Mr. Thaw hastened to the hotel for a detective Mr. Longley held the prisoner. Before that the intruder had made a swift movement in an attempt to seize a dinner knife from the table, but failed. Mr. Longley then pinned down and held him on the floor until Mr. Thaw and the detective arrived. Gingham, the Boston bulldog, stood guard.

Mrs. Thaw was Miss Virginia Bradley, of Pittsburg.

Camel Cigarettes

are wide-open for comparison with any cigarette at any price! Most sensitive smokers appreciate the pleasure Camel quality offers. They prefer it to premiums or coupons! Freedom from tongue-bite and throat-parch is as welcome as is the absence of any unpleasant cigarette after-taste!

Camels are blended choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos; you'll prefer their new flavor and mild-smoothness to either kind of tobacco smoked straight! That desirable, satisfying "body" is all there—without any come-back! No matter how many you smoke!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages, 20 for 10c; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine paper-covered carton for $1.00. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, N. C.

The stamp placed over and seals the package, which keeps out air, thereby preserving the quality of the blended tobaccos. By inserting the fingers as illustrated, the stamp easily breaks without tearing the tin foil, which folds back into its place.
