GEN. HUGH L. SCOTT

REPRESENTATIVE JAMES HAY OF VIRGINIA

Mr. Garrison in Typical Speaking Attitude.

Here are two characteristic photographs of Secretary of War Garrison, who signed Thursday, February 10. General Hugh L. Scott succeeded him as acting secretary of war. Representative James Hay, chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee was largely responsible for bringing about the resignation. His failure to adopt the continental army plan, recommended by the secretary, led to the resignation.

ranch, left this week for Portland, where they will remain for a short time, and then it is their intention to locate at Salem. S. L. Osbourne of Haines has rented the Castor ranch two miles west of Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Braham, residing on a farm near Lostine, brought their 2-year-old son to Joseph the first of this week for treatment for hydrophobia, caused by the bite of a dog infected with the disease. Dr. Mount, who is treating the case, sent the dog's head to the authorities in Portland and they pronounced it the real article in hydrophobia.

Within the last week Mrs. J. C. Conley and Mrs. G. M. Gaily of Enterprise and Mrs. Mabel Carruthers of Peace River Crossing, Alberta, Canada, visited their parents here. Postmaster and Mrs. W. C. Wilson. It was the first time the three daughters were together at the old home since they were children.

Twenty of Miss Leontine Morelock's young friends greatly enjoyed a birthday party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morelock at their home on Mill street, in honor of her 11th birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent playing games and eating everything good to eat. One of Leontine's birthday presents is a beautiful gold watch, presented by her mother.

Severe Cold Quickly Cured.

"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherby, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere.

Hilgard Happenings.

Hilgard, Feb. 25.—(Special)—Mrs. A. J. Gourley made a business trip to La Grande last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Pidcock and son Howard spent Sunday with Mrs. H. A. Endrup.

Frank Sanford is working up at the lumber camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walker have moved into the Nels Holverson residence.

H. A. Endrup left last Friday for Spokane with intention of buying a ranch in that vicinity.

There was a dance at the Hilgard Hall Saturday night, February 26. Everybody was welcome. Good music and a good time was had.

Alex Gourley has installed a new billiard table in the old bar room of the hotel.

Glen Powell, the agent, will move his family to the A. J. Gourley residence soon.

Mrs. George Hilgard and son are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Young.

Walter Thompson and family made a trip to La Grande last week.

The Best Recommendation.

The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendations of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Mrs. Amanda Gierhart, Waynesfield, Ohio, writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my family off and on for twenty years and it has never failed to cure a cough or cold." Obtainable everywhere.

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear

For a Bilious Attack.
When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, loathing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.

Action of Single Spoonful Surprises Many.

La Grande people who bought the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adleri-ka, are surprised at the instant effect of a single spoonful. This remedy is as complete a bowel cleanser that it is used successfully in appendicitis. Adleri-ka acts on both upper and lower bowel and one spoonful relieves almost any case of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. One minute after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out.—C. D. Putman.—Adv.
