RECITAL TOMORROW

Tomorrow evening at the Methodist church a group of about 30 voices, including some of the foremost musicians in the city will give "The Light Eternal" a cantata of considerable favor in musical circles. It was given during the Christmas holidays by the Methodist choir, and its presentation will be repeated tomorrow evening at the Methodist church under direction of Mrs. J. P. Graham, director of music at that church. There are numerous choruses, duets, double quartets, solos and other group of singing and, all in all, should give a splendid opportunity for the voices of the choir to display their talent. The organ selections, and arrangement of numbers as they come during the presentation, follow:

Organ Numbers.

- Andante from First Symphony Beethoven
- Stavione Cradle Song Neruda
- Largom from Xerxes Handel
- Offertory, O Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star, from Tannhauser Wagner
- The Light Eternal:
- 1. Organ Prelude.
- 2. Chorus—"Praise The Great Redeemer."
- 3. Solo and Chorus—"It Speaks to the World," Luna Moss and choir.
- 4. Bass Solo—Chorus—"God Hath Given a Son," Paul Knautz and choir.
- 5. Chorus—"While Shepherds Watched."
- 6. Trio—Soprano, Tenor and Baritone—"Star of Bethlehem," Mrs. Graham, U. D. Howland and Ralph Winters.
- 7. Contralto Solo—"The Dawning," Miss Bolman.
- 8. Tenor Solo and Quartette—"He Came To Give Salvation," Mesdames Graham, Robb, Williamson and Miss Knautz and Messrs. Howland, Harding, Knautz and Winters.
- 9. Chorus—"Born In a Manger," Choir.
- 10. Soprano Solo—"Light of Glory," Mrs. Currey and choir.
- 11. Duet—Tenor and Baritone—"The Message," C. R. Harding and Ralph Winters.

Dr. A. L. Richardson was a genial host to 15 of his friends Tuesday evening when he and Mrs. Richardson entertained at an elegant eight course dinner at their home on Washington and Pennsylvania. The shining silver was lighted with candles, and pink carnations graced the table. The service of the sumptuous dinner, and the pleasures of the evening were perfection. Those who were seated with Dr. Richardson at the "stag" were: D. M. Clark, Dr. C. T. Bacon, E. E. Kirtley, Dr. M. K. Hall, Dr. J. P. Graham, F. J. Holmes, T. J. Scroggin, Dr. R. E. L. Holt, C. D. Putman, Attorney C. E. Cochran of Portland, W. G. Sawyer, H. E. Coolidge, W. R. Jones, F. L. Meyers and Bruce Dennis. During the three hours spent at the dinner table the professional and businessmen relaxed individual cares and visited and joked one with the other in a most pleasant way.

Mrs. Barker-Carse assisted in the entertainment of the guests with her skillful rendition of numerous violin solos to each of which vociferous applause called for more.

Mrs. D. M. Clark assisted Mrs. Richardson in serving.

Preparations in Riviera school are rapidly nearing completion for an exhibition of pictures, consisting of carbon photographs, photogravings and prints in full color loaned by Elson Art Publication Co. of Belmont, Mass. The exhibition will comprise over two hundred pictures all of them copies of great masterpieces.

The object of the exhibition is to raise funds with which to purchase pictures to place in the Riviera school.

Pupils in the fifth, sixth and seventh grades in the Riviera school have been engaged this week in writing essays pertaining to "Baby Week." There is also on hand in this school a series of drawings by pupils of animal pictures, sketched from life, and these will be made the basis of an exhibit to be given at the school sometime in April.

The F. A. F. club entertained their husbands at the home of Mrs. L. S. Hanford, Tuesday evening. The first prize for ladies went to Mrs. D. Fitzgerald, and consolation to Mrs. Guy Ellis. The gentlemen's first prize was won by Mr. Lee Bellinger, and Mrs. F. Williamson, who assisted the gentlemen, was given the consolation. After the game a tamale supper was enjoyed by all present. There will be no meetings of the club until after Easter.

Leslie Haller and Miss Stella Anson, both of Union, motored over from their city Thursday and were married by Rev. Charles A. Edwards, at the Methodist parsonage. Joseph Anson and Miss Cecile Anson, brother and sister of the bride accompanied them and witnessed the bridal ceremony.

Dr. and Mrs. G. I. Biggers entertained about 15 neighborhood couples at dancing Monday evening at their home on First street. Buffet luncheon was served at the conclusion of dancing at a late hour, and brought to a close a very pleasant evening. Dr. and Mrs. Biggers have one of the best house dance floors in the city and it has been frequently put to use for that purpose of late.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bay entertained the Pinochle club at their home on Cedar street. To several of the club, that was the last function until after Easter. At pinochle Mrs. Frank Bay scored highest and won the prize. Bounteous refreshments were served at the close of playing.

Miss Rachel Turner entertained members of the Owassa club at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Gardner, on Tuesday evening March 7. The entertainment program included games and social pastimes, concluding with a lunch. It was decided by the club at this meeting to hold no sessions during the lenten season.

Mt. Glenn, Ore., March 3.—Friday evening a pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. O'Neal. There were about 40 guests present, including children. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Bigford of Portland, a cousin of Mr. O'Neal. Parlor games of various kinds were played. A well arranged program was rendered including a solo in the Hawaiian language by Mr. Geo. Chadwick and Frank O'Neal. At 11:30 a bounteous supper was served, and then the party broke up. Mr. and Mrs. O'Neal expressed their thanks to the many friends for providing the evening's entertainment and expressed the hope that all had enjoyed the occasion as much as they had.

Miss Ruth Ghorsley last evening was a charming hostess at the Geo.

Cochran home to a group of young friends, entertaining at cards for enough guests for nine tables. The affair was an informal one but highly enjoyable, refreshments were served by the hostess at the proper hour. At play, Miss Sarah Smith and Mr. Froman scored highest respectively among ladies and gentlemen. After cards had entertained the guests for a time, dancing was indulged in.

Frank Miles of Lostine and Miss Ruby Lane of Elgin were united in marriage on Friday afternoon at the Methodist Parsonage. John Lewis and Miss Elva Lewis were present as witnesses, Rev. C. A. Edwards officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thiesen entertained the evening division of the Sans Souci club Wednesday evening. Honors at cards went to Mrs. T. J. Scroggin and to F. J. Holmes. The evening was enjoyably spent, concluding with service of refreshments. Mrs. F. J. Holmes will entertain the afternoon division next week.

Wednesday afternoon ladies of the Wednesday Bridge club met with Mrs. A. A. Wenzel for a delightful afternoon. Honors at cards went to Mrs. J. J. Carr. The evening division of this club will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Van Buren and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lilly, at the home of the first-named, next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Bruce Dennis entertained the New Idea Embroidery club this week. A two-course luncheon was served to the guests. Among the non-member guests present were Mrs. Will French, Mrs. Robert Newlin, Mrs. Harry Lavey, Mrs. F. Wilhelm and Mrs. O. E. Morgan.
