CLERGY AND GRAND OPERA STAR HAVE ROMANCE

"I do not discuss my sermons with strangers!" says Rev. Penfield Sturgis of St. Martins-in-the-Lane. "But you discuss strangers in your sermons!" retorts Jane Bartlett, the prima donna, who is wrought up over the rector's denunciation of her grand opera. "Zaporah," a sensational exploitation of an apocryphal biblical story woven around Judas Iscariot and a seductive courtesan. The romance which grows up despite this inauspicious start between the clergyman and the grand opera diva, a romance which ends, however, sensibly rather than sentimentally provides a gripping story for "The Tongues of Men," the latest photo comedy of Oliver Morosco on the Paramount Program.

Constance Collier, the splendid London actress who was chosen to play "Monna Vanna" on its first presentation in England after the removal of the ban of the censor, is starred in "The Tongues of Men," as the grand opera singer. Her personal beauty and her art combine to make her performance a sensation. "The Tongues of Men," a sparkling comedy of stage versus church, tolerance versus hasty condemnation, which presents Constance Collier, the English star, in the stellar role, will shortly be introduced for the first time upon the screen by Oliver Morosco. At the Arcade theatre Monday and Tuesday.

Presidential Japery

In lieu of a speech at Lawrence the President joked with the crowd of two thousand at the station. The morning was cold and the escape from a steam-pipe at the rear of the train sometimes obscured Mr. Wilson. "I see you people out in this country aren't very warm about anything," was his opening jest. Then: "I hesitate to say anything about preparedness, as this steam may be fog my remarks." And finally, to students with toques pulled down over their ears: "I perceive that you believe in preparedness, to some extent at least." As a rough-and-ready wit Mr. Wilson is believed to be an exceptionally able President of the United States. —Kansas City Star.

Watch Child for Worms.

Worms sap child's strength, rob child of food and make child fretful, irritated, nervous. Watch stool and at first sign of suspicion of worms give one-half to one lozenge Kickapoo Worm Killer, a candy worm remover. Gives immediate results, is laxative. Paralyzes and removes the worms, improves digestion and general health of child. Continue giving Kickapoo Worm Killer until all signs of worms are gone. 25c at your Druggist.

How to Prevent Croup.

When the child is subject to attacks of croup, see to it that he eats a light evening meal, as an overloaded stomach may bring on an attack, also watch for the first symptom—hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Obtainable everywhere.

CANTATA PROVES POPULAR

CHOIR RENDERS "LIGHT ETERNAL" AT M. E. CHURCH

Under Mrs. Graham's Direction Piece Moves Along Smoothly

With the church auditorium and gallery comfortably filled, the Methodist choir last evening presented "The Light Eternal" for the second time this winter. The added drill brought about by the second presentation added smoothness and perfection and the difficult numbers were rendered with better satisfaction to all than the first time given. Sickness disarranged the program at the last moment, when Ralph Winters was forced to drop out with a severe cold at the eleventh hour. This eliminated a trio and a baritone and tenor duet, both of them among the best gems of the whole production. Thirty odd voices sang the cantata last evening, following a short organ recital, and the effort was a credit to director and performers. Solos and choruses alike were well received. The numbers as given, follow:

1. Organ Prelude.
2. Chorus—"Praise The Great Redeemer."
3. Solo and Chorus—"It Speaks to the World," Lena Moss and choir.
4. Bass Solo—Chorus—"God Hath Given a Son," Paul Knautz and choir.
5. Chorus—"While Shepherds Watched."
6. Trio—Soprano, Tenor and Baritone—"Star of Bethlehem," Mrs. Graham, L. D. Howland and Ralph Winters (eliminated.)
7. Contralto Solo—"The Dawning," Miss Bolman.
8. Tenor Solo and Quartette—"He Come To Give Salvation," Mesdames Graham, Robb, Williamson and Miss Knautz and Messrs. Howland, Harding, Knautz.
9. Chorus—"Born In a Manger," Choir.
10. Soprano Solo—"Light of Glory," Mrs. Currey and choir.
11. Tenor Solo, "The Message," C. R. Harding. (Revised from a baritone and tenor duet.)
12. Chorus by choir.
13. Soprano Solo, "Angel Voices," Mrs. J. J. Carr.
14. Tenor and soprano duet, Bass and alto duet, choir.
15. Chorus—"Lead Me" (Final chorus), choir.

Jamaica Ginger Used by Logger.

Marshfield, Ore., March 8.—Lemon extract and Jamaica ginger caused the arrest of Donald Cameron, a logger, on a charge of drunkenness. Cameron told Judge Butler that he had secured several bottles of bootleg whiskey, and when this was gone, took the next best thing available. Several empty bottles were found in his room and three in his pockets when he was arrested. When fined, he pleaded with the judge to return one bottle to him so that he might sober up on it. He has income-bearing property in Victoria, part of an estate left him.

MELLOW-SWEET IS TASTE OF "SPEAR HEAD"

Most Richly-Flavored Chew That Was Ever Pressed Into Plugs

FAVORITE FOR A GENERATION

Red-blooded men with real tobacco hunger find that they can satisfy it only by chewing, and the most wholesome and satisfying tobacco to chew is that made in plug form.

The limit of luxury in tobacco chewing is the rich, sweet, juicy flavor that trickles through your system when you chew Spear Head.

No other chewing tobacco is so mellow, so luscious and so satisfying. No other equals Spear Head for putting a keen edge on your appetite.

Spear Head is made of the world's best tobacco leaf—the choicest of red Kentucky Burley. This leaf is selected for its full, juicy richness with the most painstaking care, is stemmed by hand, is pressed into Spear Head plugs so slowly that not a drop of the rich, natural juice escapes.

Your first chew of Spear Head will open your eyes to the genuine enjoyment there is in chewing.

Chew the rich and mellow tobacco that has been the favorite for a third of a century—that's Spear Head. In 10c cuts, wrapped in wax paper.
