Pacific Coast League went into training here today for the coming season.
Manager Harry Wolverton expressed confidence that he could instill enough pep into his proteges to repeat. Wol-verton himself and several of his veterans have been here for several days although the actual training season did not open until today. The Seals will have only 21 days to whip themselves into shape. Twenty-five players are at work.

La Grande M. I. A. won over Cove in the game last evening. Ferrin, captain of the La Grande team, and Peck of Cove, were the scintillating lights of the game, though all contestants were up and going. The score:

Quite Unnecessary

A Chicago publisher registered at the Hotel Cecil in London recently, and was assigned to a room on next to the top floor. The following morning he rang for a bell-boy. When there was no response to the second call he lifted the telephone-receiver and waited in vain for "Are you there?" Failing to establish any communication with the office, he dressed and started for the office to register indignation. The elevator wasn't running. He began to walk down. On the fourth landing he met a housemaid and asked in strong Chicago language what was the matter with the hotel.

"Well, sir, you see sir," came the answer, "the Zeppelins were reported, and we were all ordered to the cellar for safety."

"After the guest said:
"Well, I'm on the next to the top floor and I wasn't warned."

"No, sir," was the bland reply,
"but you see sir, you don't come under the Employers' Liability Act, sir."—Everybody's.

War Spirit Explained

"Look here, my friend, what on earth are you waiting for? You've been standing here for an hour in the pouring rain."

"I'm waiting for a car."

"But at least five have just gone by."

"Yes, but not the one with the pretty conductor!"—Ulk (Berlin.)

Announcement

Since buying the store formerly owned by Fred Geibel I have interested with me U. T. Hill and Virgil Bolton who need no introduction to the people of La Grande and in the future this store will be known as HILL'S DEPT. STORE.

It is certainly gratifying to know the almost universal interest which is being shown in the opening of this store and in making this announcement we want to say that THIS STORE is YOUR STORE. Its policy is dictated and directed by YOUR DEMANDS. It will grow only by pleasing you and we intend to see that every dollar spent here weighs a full one hundred cents of value. New Goods are rapidly arriving. They were never before so lovely, so full of novelty, so interesting. We want you to see these goods whether you have a thought of purchase or not.
For Spring dress the new fabrics make varied and beautiful decorative effects and the suits, wraps and millinery give vivid portrayal of the styles for Spring.

We expect to have some store news in this paper every day this year.
Every article mentioned we want you to learn to know will be as it is represented and every price a money saver.

We expect to make QUALITY and PRICE the foundation of our business —That HONEST QUALITY that comes with IT the assurance of lasting satisfaction. One word more—WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS.
