HOGS AND BEEF ARE AT HIGH TIDE

Idaho Shipments Boosts Prices at Portland Yards. Portland, March 13.—Magnificent gains were made in the local livestock market at the Portland Union stockyards Tuesday morning. Pulp fed steers advanced 20 cents over last week's top quotation, grain-fed steers were 25 cents higher and hogs just naturally ballooned 40 cents to $9, the year's new record. With such splendid gains in prices, this market is getting nearer and nearer to where it belongs and will soon be up with the leaders. The outlook is highly encouraging. When it is considered that conditions governing the market here are so vastly different from those in the Middle West, the difference in prices is not so great after all. Idaho hogs, of as fine quality as ever seen in the yards, were the direct cause of the boost in this market. Buyers were active and they did not lose an opportunity to purchase even when it meant paying higher prices than they had expected. Hundreds of head had been disposed of before 10 o'clock and by noon there was less scrambling to buy. It was a fine, healthy, wholesome market throughout and one of which the yard officials had every reason to be proud.
