600 CASES OF ORANGES SOLD

ORANGE DAY SALES BREAK RECORDS.

Wholesalers Marvel at Scope of Orange Movement.

Close to 600 cases of oranges were sold preliminary to and on Orange Day in the city of La Grande alone, figures compiled by wholesalers show this morning. The cases average 100 each, and the total sales leads wholesalers to say that never in their experience have they seen such a movement of oranges in one week.

Now that National Orange day is over, merchants are turning again to the humdrum of spring trading. A bearish attitude is noticeable in potatoes, but aside from that the week opened practically as it closed.
