

SHERRY THEATRE Today Only

Pathe Presents

Dorothy Donnelly

IN

Alexander Bisson's Great Drama in 6 parts

MADAM X

To-morrow Only "Rosemary"

WE DO NOT TRY TO GAIN THE CONFIDENCE OF OUR CUSTOMERS; WE ONLY "TAKE CARE" WITH EVERY PRESCRIPTION WE FILL AND WITH EVERYTHING WE SEND OUT OF OUR STORE. WE KNOW OUR BUSINESS AND ATTEND TO IT RIGHT, AND PEOPLE HAVE "GIVEN" US THEIR CONFIDENCE.

WE PRIZE HIGHLY THE "FAITH" THIS COMMUNITY HAS IN US; AND WE SHALL NOT ABUSE IT. WE SHALL KEEP RIGHT ON TREATING OUR CUSTOMERS RIGHT, AND DOING OUR WORK IN SUCH A WAY THAT IN OUR STORE YOU CAN "ALWAYS RELY" ON WHAT YOU BUY.

Levy-Vogel Drug Co.

PRESCRIPTION SPECIALISTS WE NEVER SUBSTITUTE.

COUNTY NEWS FROM PAPERS

NORTH POWDER STOCKMEN PERFECT ORGANIZATION.

Items of Interest From Elgin County and Elsewhere.

(North Powder News)

We are informed by the trustees while no plans for the proposed new school building have been selected; there are several under discussion. While the plans vary in design they are alike in the sense that all are fireproof, walls of brick or stone, two stories, eight class rooms and auxiliary rooms. There will be a concrete basement the full size of building with heating plant, play rooms, etc.

The members of the committee and trustees are representative citizens, honest and capable men, who are working solely for the interests of the entire community in this matter and should have the approbation of every citizen who believes in better schools and higher ideals.

The largest single shipment of drygoods ever received by any firm in this city, or likely in Eastern Oregon, was delivered to the Forstrom-Pilcher Co., last Saturday, March 11. The stock consisted of drygoods, men's furnishings, ladies ready-to-wear goods and garments. These ready-to-wear garments are of latest styles, finish and quality.

The present shipment is but the fore runner of the large order placed by Mr. E. S. Forstrom with a leading wholesale firm in Spokane, while on a recent visit to that city, Saturday's car of goods amounted to more than $11,000.00, and the total amount ordered was more than $20,000.00 the balance of which will follow within a few days.

A mass meeting of the stockmen of this vicinity was held at the Bungalow last Saturday and an organization, "The North Powder Cattle and Horses association" was perfected and following officers elected for the ensuing year. S. C. Mann, president, H. Polen, vice president, J. Bowman, secretary-treasurer. The above officers with Messrs Higinbotham and J. Wicks to constitute an advisory board to direct the business of the association and work in cooperation with Forest Service in everything pertaining to Range matters. The following were present from out of town and gave addresses, replete with data of great assistance in creating the organization along most beneficial and practical lines. R. Wendt, and S. O. Correll, Secretary Oregon Cattle and Horse association. Mr. E. W. Barnes Forest Supervisor, Baker, Mr. R. Ireland, Forest Supervisor, Sumpter, and John Wells, president of the Oregon Pure Bred Horse association, of Alice! A meeting is called for today at 1:30 p. m., in the City Hall to adopt constitution and by-laws.

The organization starts out with a membership of thirty who are requested to be present at today's meeting.—We are indebted to A. C. Angell, chairman of the meeting for the report.

(Elgin Recorder)

D. B. Bennett, who recently purchased the W. T. Bussear residence property in the northwestern part of town, has moved from his other residence into the same.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hindman and daughter, Miss Hazel, and grand-son Ralph Brown, are expected home soon from California, where they annually spend the winter.

Mrs. Earl Baird left Saturday evening for La Grande to join her husband in making their future home. The young couple made friends in Elgin, who regret their decision to move from Elgin but wish them success in their new home.

Jake Hallgarth recently traded his small band of ewes to Walter Adams, who now possesses a band of considerable size and who may engage exclusively in that industry in the near future. Hallgarth received several head of cattle as a consideration in the deal.

Al Hug was among the Pumpkin Ridge farmers in town Saturday.

Jas Parsons was out during the week from Wallowa, to which place he recently moved.

Mrs. G. E. Stevenson arrived Tuesday evening from Enterprise for a visit with home folks.

George Rogers arrived yesterday morning, after an absence of a couple of years in Western Oregon.

Mrs. Earl Arnold and two children arrived from Enterprise a few days ago and is visiting relatives and friends.

W. J. Henry and family have moved in to the residence formerly occupied by Frank McNally and owned by Mrs. J. T. Galoway.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hill, of Telocaset, arrived a few days ago and are visiting friends and relatives. They formerly resided on a farm south of Elgin.

J. N. and Earl Chandler, Galloway Bros. and Sommer Bros. completed the work of dehorning several hundred head of cattle this week, preparatory to turning out on the spring range.

Ray Brown returned Sunday morning from a business visit to the county seat.

Cliff Morrow returned Saturday to Vincent, where he is employed in the logging camps.

Mrs. J. H. Keeney came down from La Grande Sunday morning to visit with Elgin relatives and friends in her former home.

Sunday afternoon witnessed the opening of the auto season in Elgin and there was scarcely an owner of a car in town who did not take advantage of the dry streets and sunshine.

Ray Brown, local motor-cycle enthusiast, has purchased a new machine of the Harley-Davidson type and latest model and expects to enter some of the Union county races this season.

Wm. Winn initiated his new Overland touring car Sunday afternoon. "Bill" says he may have to petition the council to widen the streets but that he will learn to handle the steering wheel if it takes all summer.

Julius Sommer arrived a few days ago from Walla Walla and visited here with relatives until Monday morning, when he went to Wallowa points to look after matters pertaining to the life insurance company, which he represents.

John Shelton left the latter part of last week for Pendleton, where he will be employed by Dave Johnson, the well known sheep man. The Johnson sheep will be brought to the summer range north of Elgin just as soon as the snow permits their being driven over the Blue Mts.

Jas. Hallgarth and "Soapy" Davis came in Sunday from the Hallgarth cabin on upper Phillips creek, where they have a line of traps. They report only moderate success during recent days as a result of frequent snow storms covering their traps. They report that during the last heavy rain that much of the snow in that section disappeared but state that there still remains from six to eight feet.

Mrs. Sadie McNaughton returned yesterday morning from a visit of a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Rider, and other relatives in North Yakima. Mrs. McNaughton had intended making an extended visit but said that she could resist the longings for the old home no longer and was glad to return. Her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Stubbefeld, who accompanied her, remained in North Yakima.

Simon Gent left Monday morning for the logging camps north of town.

Guy DeBoise came up from Vincent Saturday evening and spent Sunday with his family.

Jake Hearing returned on Tuesday morning's train from a visit with La Grande friends.

Scott Graham has returned to his work at the logging camp, after a lay-off of several weeks.

John Schmittle, king of Elgin swappers and traders says he is sore afraid he will be compelled to quit the business—his kids are getting the habit.

Joe Bush left Tuesday morning for Vincent to resume his labors in the Palmer logging camp.

E. C. Skiles, well known drug salesman, was in Elgin this week on one of his regular business visits.

F. E. Graham returned home Monday from Portland, where he recently accompanied a shipment of stock.

Mrs. Henry Parsons returned the latter part of last week from an extended visit with relatives in and near Enterprise.

A. J. Tucker, stockman of the Clarks Creek section, was transacting business in town Monday. Andy says the roads are drying rapidly in his section.

Mrs. James Elliott returned Sunday from Imbler where she was called by the illness of the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wiggins, the latter being her sister.

Miss Effie Martin and brother, Austin, came down from Imbler Saturday and spent the day visiting Master Chas. Henry. The visitors were accompanied by Miss Marshall.

Wm. Russell went to Vincent Tuesday morning, where he expects to be employed permanently.

"Blacky" Sherwood arrived on Tuesday evening's train from Minam for a visit with friends in his old haunts.

Mrs. Durham returned home Mon-

ORANGES

Owing to the Extraordinary Demand for Oranges we have decided to continue the Great Orange Sale the balance of the week.

LA GRANDE FRUIT COMPANY.

YOUR GROCER IS RELIABLE

He wants to hold your trade and tries to sell you brands he knows you will like.

He is always ready to recommend

KG BAKING POWDER — Ask him

day from an absence of several weeks in Seattle, where she was visiting with relatives.

Miss Nellie Burnaugh and Miss Vura Hudson were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hill, on the Flat.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Riggs, accompanied by their daughter, were among the Pumpkin Ridge residents shopping in town yesterday.

Only a short time now until the fish tackle will soon be hauled from woodsheds, garrets and cellars and the fishing season will be on.

Mrs. J. W. Leighton will leave this evening for Portland, Albany and McMinnville and will spend a month visiting friends and relatives.

Residents who have been traveling the Clarks Creek road state that some excellent road work has been performed under the direction of Supervisor Boyd.

The family of Rev. L. S. Chapman is expected to arrive in a few days. Mrs. C. has the M. E. parsonage in a spick and span condition, awaiting their arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hallgarth, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Maggie Stricker returned this morning from Portland, where they spent the greater portion of the winter.

Some of the local band members received the news this week that "Billy" Mack and his wife are now residing in Maries, Ida, and that they are the parents of a new girl.

A. H. Morris, a business man and banker of Bozeman, Mont., arrived in Elgin Tuesday for a visit at the home of his nephew, J. W. Leighton. He will depart for his home this evening. Section Foreman Folsom is authoity for the statement that a raise in wages to a $1.75 a day has been granted all men employed on the section. This is the second increase during the present month.

C. K. Hammersley, a resident of the Summerville section, was a visitor in Elgin the fore part of the week, coming over the Pumpkin Ridge road, and stated that the trip was anything but pleasant.

C. L. Yentzer and Dr. E. O. Wilson have completed the work of overhauling and repainting the second hand Ford they recently purchased and are now the possessors of practically a new car.

E. E. Brugger, farmer and stock grower of the south end of the Flat, was in town Monday, accompanied by his wife. He reports the roads between his farm and town drying rapidly and says they are in much better condition than one would expect.

W. S. Ezell, pioneer farmer and stock man of the Flat, was in town Tuesday. As usual, "Bill" was riding a good horse, but he had no sooner arrived in town than some fellow yelled: "How'd you come to start to town a foot, Bill?"

Sam and Jack Dinsmore and Ed. Byers, who have been keeping bachelor quarters in this city for the past several weeks, have returned to Vincent to resume their labors in the logging camp of the Geo. Palmer Lumber Co. All three enjoyed the forced lay-off, due to deep snow making logging operations unprofitable.

I. M. Fulton was a pleasant caller at the Recorder office Saturday. "Dad" Fulton, as he is known to most of his younger friends is one of the few remaining veterans of the Civil war and when reference was made to the army of the U. S. A. going into Mexico 20 years of age dropped from the old soldiers and a twinkle in his eyes, was proof positive that could additional years be rolled back he would gladly joint the fray.

WANTED—Clean cotton rags—2c a pound—Observer office. 3-10-16

Our Want Ads bring results.

This is the Stove Polish YOU Should Use

It's different from others because more care is taken in the making and the materials used are of higher grade.

Black Silk Stove Polish

Makes a brilliant, silky polish that does not rub off or dust off, and the silicate four times as long as ordinary stove polish. Used on stoves and sold by hardware and grocery dealers.

All we ask in trial. Use it on your cook stove, your parlor stove or your gas range. If you don't find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Insist on Black Silk Stove Polish. Made in liquid or paste—one quality.

Black Silk Stove Polish Works Sterling, Illinois

Use Black Silk Air-Drying Enamel on grates, registers, stove-tops—Prevents rusting. Use Black Silk Metal Polish for silver, nickel or brass. It has no equal for use on automobiles.

"A Shine in Every Drop"