HAIL STRIKES. LADD CANYON

LADD CREEK ON HIGHWATER RAMPAGE

St. Patrick's Dance at Hot Lake Enjoyed By All

Ladd Canyon, March 21.—(Special)—It has rained here every afternoon since Saturday. Sunday was experienced the hardest hail storm for a long time. As a result of the rain Ladd Creek is on a rampage, overflowing everywhere, but as yet no bridges have been taken. The road up in the canyon, near Joseph Linebarger's place, has required a great deal of work since the rain of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Heryford left on the evening of the fifteenth for Waitsburg, Wash., where they have accepted a position on a large farm.

Literary was closed on March 10th. Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Linebarger's little son, Lennie, was taken dangerously ill last Tuesday. Dr. Margaret Ingle of La Grande, was called and after a night's hard work he was much improved and is getting along all right now.

Most everyone in the neighborhood who dances attended the St. Patrick's dance at Hot Lake last Friday evening. Most everyone wore a touch of green, and a jolly good time was had by all. There were a good many guests there now and with the addition of the Ladd Canyoners, the spacious lobby was lined on all sides.

Mrs. Luther Geiger has been quite ill but is able to be around a little now.

Mesdames Frank Ingle and Frank McClure entertained the members of the Get Together Club last Thursday afternoon at the home of the former. After a couple of hours had been spent in fancy work a delicious luncheon was served. All but five of the members were present and every one had a pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Alec Furgason will entertain next Thursday.

Henry Bambridge left last Thursday evening for Portland to join his wife, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Rhoda Baker, a couple of weeks.

Wm. Banton, who had his hand so badly hurt with an ax some time ago, has not been getting along so well lately, finding it necessary to visit the doctor every day now.

Mrs. Martha Stoll came over from Adams Saturday evening to remain for an indefinite period with her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Fields.

The school children held their literary again Friday. The program was in keeping with St. Patrick's day.

Lucky Editor

"Is the editor in?" asked the man with the unbarbered hair and the shiny coat, as he fished a roll of paper from his pocket.

"No," replied the office boy, "he has just gone out."

"This is the third time I have called to see him," growled the caller, "and each time you have told me he has just gone out. What's the explanation?"

"I don't know answered the office boy, "but I guess he must have been born under a lucky star."—Phil. Public Ledger.

Chehalis Gets Delayed Busts. Chehalis, Wash., March 15.—Two pieces of statuary, busts of Dante and Beatrice, have been received by the Chehalis library. The busts were ordered last year by N. B. Coffman as a Christmas gift to the library, but as they were imported from Florence, Italy, they were somewhat delayed in transit. The busts are of Italian marble, executed in colors, and mounted on marble pedestals, the pedestals and busts standing nearly five feet high.

Camel

come to you as a cigarette creation worthy of comparison with any cigarette in the world, no matter what its price!

Blended choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos in Camels provide a new flavor that is as delightful as it is refreshing. And besides, Camels are free from bite and parch, and leave no unpleasant cigaretty after-taste, no matter how freely you smoke them!

Camel cigarettes are worthy of your confidence because they'll stand any test for satisfaction and for quality! Do not look for or expect coupons or premiums. The value is in the cigarettes!

And the more Camels you smoke the more you'll realize you prefer this blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY
Winston-Salem, N. C.

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages, 20 for 10c, or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton for $1.00. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

The stamp placed over and seals the package, which keeps out air, thereby preserving the quality of the blended tobaccos. By inserting the fingers as illustrated, the stamp easily breaks without tearing the tin foil, which folds back into its place.
