HIGH STUDENTS PERFORM

SONGS AND RECITATIONS GIVEN IN GERMAN

Then, Performance Over, Refreshments Were Served to All

The German club met Wednesday evening in the auditorium where the following program was rendered in the German language:
 Address—Rev. Dr. Hahn.
 Chorus—"The Watch on the Rhine".
 Solo—"Evening Star" (From Tannhauser), Glenn Conkey.
 Anecdote—Mable Oesterling.
 Some German Customs—La Verne De Lashmunt.
 Solo—"Sing to Me Your Song," Marie Love.
 Recitation—"The Castles on the Sea", Ralph Poston.
 Anecdote—Mable Oesterling.
 Schiller's "The Glove" recited by Genieve Stoddard and acted by seven members of the club.
 The German School—Martha Schofield.
 Chorus—"The Lorelei".
 After which every one repaired to the Domestic Science rooms where refreshments of sherbet and cake were served and the members of the club say the best part came last for each one had to wash his own dishes.

Joseph and Vicinity

(Joseph Herald)

X. Michellod is enjoying a visit in Walla Walla this week with his family.

Geo. Dawson and family have moved out to their sawmill home for the summer.

It is reported that Mrs. Noel Duncan, formerly of Joseph, was married one day this week in Portland.

Wilfred Davies has arrived here from Troy, this county, to teach the Spring term of school at Three Lakes.

Al Meek has just sold 80 acres of good farming land, 10 miles east of Joseph to Ernest Buchanan for $7,000.

C. P. Archambault, a carpenter and contractor from Ritzville, Wash., is among the latest newcomers to Joseph.

Miss Vella Zerres, the popular schoolmarm, was married at Walla Walla March 18th to Purl N. Stephenson of Chico.

Lloyd Akins has returned to Joseph from Butte and Anaconda, Mont., where he had been at work since last summer.

Peter Bomer and family have moved back from La Grande to Joseph and occupy the Bomer house on lower Main street.

Mrs. Alf Miller and children arrived home yesterday from Pomeroy, Wash., where they spent the winter with her sister and mother.

Elmer Smith, while in the employ of J. T. McClain on Hurricane creek one day this week broke his left arm by getting it caught in a gasoline engine.
