"THE HEART OF THE BLUE RIDGE"

World Film Corporation presents the five part photoplay "The Heart of the Blue Ridge," based upon a recently published novel.

Clara Kimball Young has the part of Plutina, an attractive girl in the heart of the moonshining country, with a fondness for pet bears, one of whom is her inseparable companion. And she is beloved by a manly young fellow named Zeke, who has a rival in Dan Hodges, the keeper of an illicit still. The revenue officers offer a reward for the apprehension of Dan, who being discovered, takes to the hills, swearing vengeance against Zeke with whom he has had a quarrel.

Dan makes love to Plutina, and being unsuccessful, kills her bear. Zeke vows vengeance. Finally, when the two men meet, there is a terrific struggle on the edge of a cliff, and Dan Hodges falls on the rocks and is killed. Plutina and her country lover are united.

The settings are exceedingly beautiful, and as the story holds by its very power and force, it is bound to be a great popular success.

The Heart of the Blue Ridge will be shown at the Arcade theatre on Sunday.

At Sherry's Sunday Only.

AT SHERRY'S

"DIMPLES" FEATURES STAR Little Mary Miles Minter, the charming and gifted young actress, who has been seen in the stellar roles in "Barbara Frietchie," "Emmy of Stork's Nest" and other Metro wonderplays, will be seen here at the Sherry theatre tomorrow only in "Dimples," a five part Metro feature produced by the Columbia Pictures corporation. "Dimples" is an original story written especially for Miss Minter by Mary Louise Downing, and adapted for the screen by Harry O. Hoyt. Miss Minter is supported by an exceptionally strong cast including Thomas J. Carrigan, her new leading man, William Cowper, Peggy Hopkins, Charlotte Shelby, Harry Ford, Ferd Tidmarsh, William Rausher, Mae De Metz, Schuyler Ladd, John I. Donough, and other prominent stage and screen artists. The production is mounted on an elaborate scale and there are many beautiful exteriors made in the picturesque country around Jacksonville, Fla. "Dimples" promises to be one of the most delightful photoplays of the season.

Tweedle Dum And Tweedle Dee

St. Paul, Minn., April 7.—Whether a liability insurance company is liable for damage to a machine driven in substitution for the machine upon which it contracts insurance, was before the Minnesota supreme court for hearing today. The Crescent Creamery company bought a truck, with the proviso that if it broke down the truck company would substitute another truck.

The Price of Contentment

"May both races forgive us," said the California philosopher, "yet if the lords of Karma grant us our will, we shall in our next incarnation be half Irish and half Hebrew. For the Irishman is happy as long as he has a dollar, and the Hebrew always has it."—Everybody's.

Expert Testimony

Landlady—"That new boarder is either a married man or a widower." Pretty Daughter—"Why, ma, he says he is a bachelor." Landlady—"Well, I don't believe it. When he opens his pocketbook to pay his board he always turns his back to me."

Canny

A Chicago violinist who gives concerts throughout the West was bitterly disappointed with the account of his recital printed in an Iowa town paper.

"I told you man three or four times," complained the musician to the owner of the paper, "that the instrument I used was a genuine Stradivarius, and in his story there was not a word about it, not a word."

Whereupon the owner said, with a laugh: "That is as it should be. When Mr. Stradivarius gets his fiddle advertised in my paper under two dollars a line, you come around and let me know."—Everybody's.

To Prove She Could

Astonished mother—Why Tottie, you never told me you had invited so many children to your party! Small hostess—That's cause you said I never could keep a secret.—Life
