Frank Curl, of Pendleton, was in La Grande today shaking hands with old friends. He came in from Hot Lake where he and Mrs. Curl have been for a few days. Frank says Umatilla county is humming along as usual, that Pendleton is getting to be a better town every day and that peace and quiet reigns among every faction of the Republican party across the hills. He is watching with considerable interest the Will R. King Democratic squabble as his fellow townsman, Will Peterson, happens to be a candidate for delegate to the St. Louis convention against King and naturally the fight becomes more or less local in Pendleton.

The Lutheran Parish society will be entertained Thursday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock by Mrs. Short, 1610 Oak street, near Spring.

Safe Medicine for Children.

"Is it safe?" is the first question to be considered when buying cough medicine for children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has long been a favorite with mothers of young children as it contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. It is pleasant to take, too, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. This remedy is most effectual in relieving coughs, colds and croup. Obtainable everywhere.

PERSONAL MENTION

La Grande breaks into Eastern print occasionally. The last squib from Oregon to be printed generously in various papers of the east concerned the recent earthquake in Baker which disturbed the natural course of the hot springs near the Homer Bidwell place in the North Powder region. The Boston Globe is one of the last papers printing it. W. G. Sawyer, of the firm Sawyer-Clark, has received a clipping from the Globe, sent by his mother. It reads: "La Grande, Ore.—(Special)—Reports received here from a remote district of Union county told of some peculiar effects of the earthquake which shook this section Oct. 2 last. A spring which had flown hot water as far back as the oldest resident could remember has, since the earthquake, flown cold, and a cold spring near by has increased its flow tenfold."

Sudden rains coming up yesterday evening making roads bad, and other unexpected hindrances, cut the Modern Woodmen class initiation last evening to 24. However this big class ranks close to the record size in the entire state this year. Visitors were present last evening from Imbler, Summerville, Cove, Island City. Each of these districts, except Cove, sent in candidates for initiation. The class reflects credit upon District Deputy Chas. D. Jester of this city, who boosted it and engineered the occasion. The event was one of the most pretentious in a long time so far as local Woodcraft is concerned.

Remarkable Endurance

"Wanted—Girl; farmhouse; last lived two years."—Devon and Exeter Gazette.

Mrs. C. H. Carpenter left this morning for Enterprise where she will visit her parents for a week or 10 days.

Attorney George T. Cochran has gone to Portland on business matters. Mrs. E. E. Myers, who with her husband are moving to the lower Columbia country, left last evening for Portland.

Mrs. Clarence Charboneau left today for Pilot Rock Junction to visit her mother, Mrs. Crawford, who is proprietress of the boarding house at Pilot Rock.

J. Melville is a business visitor in Imbler today.

Henry McGoldrick returned to Imbler today after transacting business in the city.

Mrs. C. W. Robbs arrived this morning from Pleasant Valley on a visit to relatives.

Ed Bussey is on a business trip to Union today.

Warren Chandler, the stockman, left today for Dillon, Mont., where he has in view the purchase of a large number of cattle which if the deal goes through he will ship to the Portland market.

County School Superintendent Ivanhoe left today on an official visit to Union.

Wm. R. Harding, who has been in the employ of the railroad company at Huntington, has returned to La Grande and will leave tonight for Seward, Alaska, where he expects to remain an indefinite period.

George Thomas, one of the pioneer residents of Cove, was on a business trip to La Grande today.

J. W. Sills, Cove farmer, was in La Grande this morning on a business proposition.

Word is received that C. C. Pennington and members of his family who have been spending several months in California, will leave Santa Ana, for their return to La Grande on the 15th of this month.

HUMOR INEXHAUSTIBLE.

Lyceum Artist Continually Bubbles Over With Keen Wit.

Everyone likes clean entertaining humor, and that is just the reason the Neighborhood club have secured Opie Read as the last attraction of the highly successful 1915-16 Red-path lyceum course for La Grande. Read is a veteran story teller. Keep an hour's tab on him and you will find yourself to the good on a score of new refreshing stories from his inexhaustible supply. In simplicity and truth lies the charm of all he says. He is a creative genius with a dominant optimistic spirit. Read portrays the life of Dixey, the land of Uncle Tom and the cotton fields, which he knows so well.

The many who have heard Opie Read are enthusiastic over the coming Saturday evening entertainment in the high school auditorium which will begin at 9 p. m. to accommodate the businessmen. Seat reservation open tomorrow at Van Buren's.
