

EASTER NOVELTIES

You ought to be in our store these days and hear the expressions of delight from the little folks who see our Easter Novelties. You would realize then how much happiness you could provide for the small people at home, and at an insignificant cost, too.

We Have a Complete Line

Pluffy little chicks and ducks, funny birds with hats on, strange birds of brilliant plumage, roosters, hens, rabbits, eggs etc. Some novelties are of candy, some are made to hold candy and others are just ornamental.

PRICES 5c, 10c, and 15c

Hughes Asks Name Be Not Printed.

Salem, Or., April 18.—Secretary of State Olcott yesterday afternoon received a letter from Justice Charles E. Hughes, in which the latter protests against his name being placed on the ballot as a candidate for the Republican nomination for president. Prior to receiving the letter the secretary has received a telegram to the same effect. After the receipt of the telegram the Hughes supporters initiated mandamus proceedings to compel the secretary to put Justice Hughes' name on the ballot, and the case is now pending in the supreme court. Justice Hughes' letter says: "Having been informed that a petition is about to be filed with you for the purpose of having my name placed on the ballot of the Republi-

Semi-Monthly AUCTION SALE

AT FAIR GROUNDS IN LA GRANDE, OREGON, EVERY TWO WEEKS COMMENCING

Saturday April 22nd

AT 1 O'CLOCK SHARP

This is the Great Exchange for all kinds of articles in the Grande Ronde Valley.

Anything offered will be sold at auction and the highest price obtained. If you have anything you do not need turn it into money. List your property free of charge at the Observer office or with Ed. Stringham, any time during week and have it at the Fair Grounds by Saturday noon.

These are regular and permanent sales and the entire public is invited to come.

Here the farmer and stockmen of the valley will gather together every two weeks and we will hold an old-fashioned get-acquainted meeting as well as public sales.
