AT ARCADE

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," will be seen at the Arcade Friday and Saturday with Charlotte Walker, the celebrated American actress, in the same role in which she scored such a phenomenal success on the speaking stage.

Prominent in her support is Theodore Roberts, Thomas Meighan and other members of the Lasky all-star organization.

FINE PLAY AT SHERRY'S

At Sherry's today Metro pictures corporation presents the impressive emotional actress Dorothy Donnelly, star of "Madame X" etc., in a picture ization of the absorbing tale "Sealed Valley" for the last time.

Nahnja Crossfox with her family and relatives lives in a hidden valley in the north country. In this hidden valley there is untold virgin gold. The Indians have little use for gold, but Nahnja, educated at a convent, is well advanced.

She starts for a nearby settlement to procure the services of a doctor and meets young Ralph Cowdray, who longing for adventure and romance, has settled in Fort Edward. The doctor, demanding payment in advance, is surprised when Nahnja displays a large bag of gold. Attracted by the gold and the good looks of the girl, he accompanies her. They journey to where Nahnja's brother is waiting and during a seven days' trip through the rapids, the doctor and the Indian girl are drawn closely together.

After the doctor's professional duties are ended, and during a morning stroll, he accidentally stumbles across the entrance to a sealed valley.

Nahnja discovers Doctor Cowdray in her secret cavern. He proposes to her but she rejects him fearing the usual unhappy union of whites and red. Doctor Cowdray later returns to Sealed Valley, followed by two unscrupulous scoundrels, named Stack and Mixer, who suspect that he has struck gold.

GRAVEDIGGER ASKS RISE

Man Who Covers Heroes In Arlington Asks For More Pay

Washington, March 25.—The Government gravedigger the man who prepares the opening in Arlington Cemetery for the last resting place of the Nation's heroes, tearfully pleaded recently before the house committee for an increase in his wages of $40 a month.

He has a wife and two children. Plaintively he told the committee he could not raise the children and keep his home on this amount.

"You get your wife to make out for us just what it costs now to buy the navy beans, hominy, bread and milk you feed your children and what it cost her when you were first married," said Representative Nolan of California.

The gravedigger came to speak in favor of the Nolan bill for a $3-a-day minimum for Government laborers.

It hasn't any surrender value. You see, it's a term policy.—New York Tribune.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
