AT THE MOVIES

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."
 The distinguished American actress, Charlotte Walker, will be seen at the Arcade tonight and tomorrow in the Jesse L. Lasky picturization of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." It was in the dramatic version of this beautiful story of the Cumberland mountains that Miss Walker scored her greatest triumph on the speaking stage. The story was secured especially for her by the Lasky company. It is a Paramount picture.

The story of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" has to do with the love of a young Internal Revenue Officer hunting for illegal moonshine whiskey stills in the remote mountain section of Virginia. There he meets "June," the beautiful daughter of old Judd Tolliver, head of the moonshiners. How the two fall in love, although enemies, how the moonshine traffic is broken up and the young officer wins over the Tolliver family must, naturally, be seen to be appreciated.
 Cecil B. DeMille, director general of the Lasky company, was personally in charge of the production of the photodrama and has maintained a wonderful atmosphere of the mountains and the peculiar characteristics of the uneducated Mountaineers throughout the entire production. The photography is by Alvin Wyckoff, head of the Lasky photographic department and is unusual in its beauty and originality.
 In the cast supporting Miss Walker are such famous artists as Theodore Roberts, Thomas Meighan, Earl Fox, Park Jones and a number of other members of the Lasky all-star organization.

AT SHERRY'S

"The Fool's Revenge."

Today at Sherry's:—Anson, the clown, kills his wife, whom he finds in the home of Randall, a wealthy libertine.
 Anson, who has changed his name to Andrews, discovers Mendell, his partner, making love to Randall's wife, who is a visitor at the Mendell home.
 Mendell goes to the home of Andrews, without knowing that the residence is that of his partner, and, overpowering Randall's daughter, carries her away in an automobile.

 Ethel, daughter of Andrews, and Mendell are injured in an automobile accident, while Mendell is kidnapping the girl. Ethel is taken to the Mendell home, nearby, and placed in bed in the room recently vacated by Mrs. Randall.
 Andrews, believing that the occupant of the room is Mrs. Randall, enters and chloroforms his own daughter.
 Andrews, carrying the unconscious form of his own daughter, goes with Mendell to an apartment where he leaves Ethel for Mendell.
 Randall is informed by telephone by Andrews, that Mrs. Randall is in an apartment with Mendell.
 Randall hastens to the apartment and kills Mendell, then discovers that the woman in the room is not his wife.
 Andrews finds out that he has furnished his own daughter to Mendell.

Spring

Spring is looked upon by many as the most delightful season of the year, but this cannot be said of the rheumatic. The cold and damp weather brings on rheumatic pains which are anything but pleasant. They can be relieved, however, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Obtainable everywhere.
