The elegant George Palmer residence was the social mecca of 115 matrons and girls Thursday and Friday afternoons when Mrs. George Palmer, Mrs. Vincent Palmer and Mrs. Guy M. Byrket entertained at Bridge and Five Hundred. The first arranged for guests for 16 tables, was devoted to bridge, and on Friday 12 tables were at play at Five Hundred. The home, one of the most elegant in Eastern Oregon, was not elaborately decorated, but a suggestion of green and white harmonized effectively with the delicate shadings of the porches and commodious rooms in which tables were placed. The well known Palmer-Byrket gracious hospitality was enjoyed immensely on both occasions.

Mrs. T. J. Seroggin scored high at bridge Thursday and was seconded by Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe, and to Mrs. Norman Frees went consolation.

Friday when five hundred was the play, Mrs. Ed Thomas scored highest and Mrs. M. B. Donohue was second best while Mrs. Frank Jackson was awarded the consolation. Each of these six ladies were awarded handsome laurels for their playing.

Mrs. G. W. Tape of Hot Lake was a special guest at the Thursday function and Mrs. Schulte of Portland was among the out-of-town guests Friday.

In numbers the affair drew one of the largest guest lists of the city's social history. The general scheme of decorations and refreshments served each day had a tone of attractively rich simplicity which made the function one of those affairs that society people like to praise and applaud.

The Neighborhood club met Tuesday at 2:00 p. m. at the club room. During the business period the reports of different committees were read and each report proved this a very successful year for the Neighborhood club. Definite plans for the club breakfast will be given at the next meeting. The annual election will be held on Monday, May 29th in place of May 30th. One new member was added at this meeting.

The opening number of the program was music by a quartet composed of Miss Black, Mrs. Ferrin, Mr. Ferrin, Mr. Bramwell. The number was planned by Mr. Ferrin and was a surprise for the ladies. The beautiful rendering of this patriotic song was greatly appreciated by the club.

The history of Mary Antin, by Mrs. L. B. Moe, was intensely interesting.

As family suffered many hardships coming to America but the useful life of their daughter, after receiving her education, was only one of the many blessings that came to their home in the land of the free. The life of Jacob Riis was beautifully portrayed by Mrs. C. H. Upton. Jacob Riis came to this country when a boy and many times had no where to lay his head or food to eat. Success comes to those who labor and made of Jacob Riis a citizen that America is proud of.

Mrs. John Theisen in a very pleasing way told the difficulties encountered by Abraham Ribbany. After leaving Syria he was cast into American melting pot and was transformed into the beautiful character that has made him a citizen of the true life.

The Neighborhood club is very proud of the fact that they are to have a delegate at the Great Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in New York City in May.

Mrs. T. Williams will ably represent the club at this time.

Star Saturday evening the Y. M. C. A. will have a ball at Rex Hall. In the evening to this event, which will be the climax of the annual field day that church will stage next Saturday. The program that day will be varied and varied in nature, continuing until the hour of 11:30 p. m. when the annual ball closes.

Star special will have a meeting with Mrs. F. E. Oxner lives at 1715 Washington avenue. Mrs. P. J. McDonald succeeds Mrs. Robt. Patterson as chairman of the social club.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ahlquist entertained the Leap Year club last evening in a most delightful way. At cards high score was won by C. B. Miller. Mrs. Ahlquist served very delicious refreshments and the evening was a treat to all.

The Watch Your Step club held forth at Honan hall last evening with an enjoyable dancing party. The club had in mind a rather early party at the Park auditorium, but the weather wasn't suited and the meeting place was shifted at the last moment.

The Wednesday Bridge club, like the Bridge, Kaffee Klatch and other card clubs, was shunted aside by the week's big parties and did not meet. The club meets next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ray Logan as hostess.

The Noisy club, composed of masters of West La Grande met last evening with Master Jack Dennis. The meeting was marked with the usual noise and good cheer.

Mrs. N. Molitor will entertain the evening section of the Kaffee Klatch the coming Friday evening.

Another vesper recital, similar in every way to the one presented a week ago, is being planned by the Methodist church orchestra under the direction of Ralph G. Henline, director. The event was so successful on the first venture that the orchestra has been opportuned to give another one of that sort, and the orchestra is drilling for a program of even better merit than the initial one.

CHURCH NEWS

There is much interest in La Grande over the big Sunday School convention to be held in Elgin beginning next Monday. It is the Thirty-first Annual Convention of the Oregon State Sunday School Association and will convene in Elgin next Monday, May 1, at 1:00 o'clock P. M.

Practically all arrangements have been completed for the conducting of the state event and the Elgin committee on entertainment has practically completed all labors and no trouble is anticipated in entertaining visiting delegates. At least 100 out-of-town delegates will be in attendance and it is estimated there will be seven more than that number.

Workers Here Tomorrow.
Dr. H. A. Dowling and Mrs. Clara G. Esson will be in La Grande over Sunday. They will attend the State S. S. Convention in Elgin May 1, 2, and 3. Both are prominent Sunday School workers and will address the convention. While here Dr. Dowling will speak in the Presbyterian church at the morning hour and in the Central Christian church in the evening at 7:30. Mrs. Esson will speak in the Baptist church in the morning and in the Methodist church in the evening at the 7:30 service. It is a treat for La Grande to have these speakers in our midst and many should hear them.
