PERSONAL MENTION

S. A. Pursel, well known banker and capitalist of Union, was a business visitor in La Grande today.

Attorney Dan Sheahan, of Enterprise, is in La Grande on his way home from Pendleton where he was presenting some legal matters to the supreme court.

Wallace G. Trill, attorney of Walla, is here on the return trip from Pendleton where he attended the supreme court session.

W. C. Endicott, an old resident of Walla, arrived in La Grande this morning from Portland where he has been staying during the winter. He will visit relatives near Imbler before finally returning to his home at Enterprise.

"Butch" Bramwell, who has been with his father, F. S. Bramwell in Western Oregon, returned to La Grande this morning.

John Stricker arrived last night from St. Johns to attend the funeral of his sister, formerly Dina Stricker, which was held from the Presbyterian church this afternoon.

Melvin O'Shea, formerly of Portland, but recently with the Feeder company at Burleigh, Idaho, is a guest for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Horan.

Mrs. J. F. Corbett was taken seriously ill yesterday and was last evening taken to Portland in Superintendent William Bollons' private car. She was accompanied by Dr. M. K. Hall and the railroad hospital nurse. No information has been received today as to her condition upon arrival in Portland this morning.

Mrs. Christie Wood has gone to Battle Creek, Mich., to visit relatives. She formerly lived there but of late has been with her daughter Mrs. John Orvis of South La Grande.

Henderson Clark of South La Grande is recovering after a sharp illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ellis left on the early train for Laramie, Wyo., where they were called by the sudden death from heart failure of Mrs. Ellis' father, Engineer James Ponting, the oldest man in the sixth district of the Union Pacific system. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis expect to be away about two weeks.

Mrs. G. T. Darland and Mrs. Para Thornton went to Elgin today to attend the Sunday School convention now under way there. Mrs. Thornton will remain over until tomorrow.

Roy J. Clark, who this morning received and accepted a final call to the Y. M. C. A. at Astoria, effective June first, left this morning for Elgin to participate in the Sunday School convention program there. His successor, J. G. King, of Washington state, is now in California preliminary to coming to La Grande.

Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe, Miss Margaret Anson and Mrs. Turner Oliver comprised a group of ladies from here attending the Elgin Sunday School convention today.

Clark Leiter, city editor of the Portland Journal, who has been visiting Mrs. Leiter of the Arcade theatre, and taking the Hot Lake baths, returned to his post in Portland today.
