THEY LET HIM SLEEP

"Since taking Foley Kidney Pills I believe I am entirely cured and I sleep soundly all night."

H. T. Strayne

Take two of Foley Kidney Pills with a glass of pure water after each meal and at bedtime. A quick and easy way to put a stop to your getting up time after time during the night.

Foley Kidney Pills also stop pain in back and sides, headache, stomach troubles, disturbed heart action, stiff and aching joints and rheumatic pains due to kidney and bladder ailments.

GAINESVILLE, GA., R. R. No. 3. Mr. H. T. Strayne says: "For ten years I've been unable to sleep at night without getting up. Sometimes only a few minutes after going to bed I'd have to get up, and I tried everything I heard of for the trouble. Last year I tried Foley Kidney Pills and after taking one bottle I believe I am entirely cured and I sleep soundly all night."

Don't Miss This: To give all a chance to try Foley & Co.'s family remedies, send to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., this clipping and 5c, with your name and address written clearly, and they will mail you a trial package containing samples of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, Foley Kidney Pills and Foley Cathartic Tablets.

SOLD EVERYWHERE

Lieut. Bryan, U. S. N. stated before the Am. Soc. of Naval Engineers: "Oils made from the asphalt-base crudes have shown themselves to be much better adapted to motor cylinders, as far as their carbon-forming proclivities are concerned, than are paraffine-base Pennsylvania oils."

Zerolene is scientifically refined from selected California crude— asphalt-base. Highest competitive awards, San Francisco and San Diego Expositions. For sale by dealers everywhere and at service stations and agencies of the Standard Oil Company.

The purchase price of the farm is said to be in the neighborhood of $3000.

Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart formerly resided in Elgin and their return is welcomed.

New Store to Be Opened in Few Days

J. W. Brown, who for several years conducted the Fair store in this city and who recently closed out his business in Idaho, will reopen for business in a few days and open to the public a complete line of dry goods and novelties.

Carpenters are now busy remodeling and installing shelving in the Becker building, which will be the location of the new store and will have the same ready for occupancy in a few days. Mr. Brown's stock of goods has already arrived and he anticipates no trouble in opening at an early date.

Frank Pettie, who was formerly employed by Brown at the time he occupied the Hallgarth building, is here and will assist in the store. Mr. Brown needs no introduction to Elgin people having lived among us for several years. Watch for the Fair Store announcement in the next issue of The Recorder.

J. P. Morelock, Post Master at Wallowa, was in Elgin Tuesday and visited relatives briefly. He had been to La Grande after an Overland roadster, which he was driving home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hallgarth and Mrs. Maggie Stricker went to La Grande Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jacob Massdam, formerly Miss Dena Stricker, whose death occurred in California the latter part of last week.

Terry Tuttle, pioneer resident of Willow creek, visited in Elgin Tuesday, it being his first trip to town in three months. "Grandpa" Tuttle is now in his 85th year and has lived on his present farm upwards of 60 years. He was accompanied Tuesday by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. B. Tuttle.

Ray Norval of the Willow creek district, is the owner of a new auto of the Reo make. Ray has always been an owner and lover of some of the best horses in the county and his friends are now wondering what will become of the silken coats of his thoroughbreds.

State Senator E. E. Kiddle and wife drove down from Island City yesterday and spent the day attending the Sunday School Convention and visiting Elgin friends. Kiddle is a candidate for re-nomination to the office of joint-senator from this and Wallowa county and is unopposed.

George "Dowd" Donnelly, for several years a resident of Elgin but for the past 12 years a resident of Portland and that vicinity, was here Monday renewing acquaintanceship and looking after some timberland holdings. George resided in Elgin during a period that is often referred to as the "palmy" days—stud and draw poker and "21" games flourished and the town was wide-open. He, of course recalls the fact that money was plentiful at that time, but said that while conditions were exactly opposite at the present time he noted with appreciation the fact that Elgin was enjoying good times under the present regime and that to all appearances the town had enjoyed a substantial growth and was firmly built upon permanent resources.

Dutch and Glenn Barnes left last evening for Spokane, where they expect to find work. If not they may go to Canada.

Wm. Knight arrived in Elgin Saturday from Troy, Wallowa county, and has been visiting relatives and friends and looking after business.

Joe Ray has sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to be around town but says he does not expect to be ready for a foot race before several days.

Miss Ethel Hansen, who has been visiting Elgin friends for several days left Sunday evening for her home in Vale. Her father was formerly pastor of the local M. E. Church.

Mrs. Abbie Mayfield has returned from an absence of several weeks in Wallowa and has again accepted a position as head-cook in the Sommer Hotel.

The residence property belonging to Attorney L. Denham and located at the rear of the Christian Church property is undergoing extensive improvements, which are adding greatly to the attractiveness of the place.

Mrs. A. G. Smith, of Union, was one of the many visitors present at the S. S. convention in Elgin this week.

J. W. Brown has a force of men engaged in pruning the trees on his tract of fruit land near town.

Mrs. Jet. Gaskill was among the Imbler people here during the week to attend the S. S. convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gray, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ruckman and Miss Opal Hall, of the Imbler district, composed an auto party who visited Elgin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Masten returned home the latter part of last week from a visit in Island City with their daughter, Mrs. Day, and with their daughter Mrs. Ben Grandy, Jr. of La Grande.

Fred Loughary, for many years a resident of this section, arrived Sunday from his home at Stanfield for a visit with friends and relatives. This is Fred's first visit to Elgin in eight years and he finds that it takes a little time to get re-acquainted.

Councilman Frank Keller, W. J. Henry and E. F. Hug spent Sunday fishing on the Wallowa river. The trip was made in Mr. Hug's auto and the party was accompanied by John Bowers and Dan Graham, who did return the same day. A fairly good catch is reported.

Mrs. C. W. Bean and son Clarence arrived a few days ago from Union and have joined Mr. Bean in making Elgin their home. They have leased the H. H. Hug residence, which is one of the most comfortable in town and are now located therein. Mr. Bean recently became associated with the G. M. & S. Co.

G. Bekker is still walking with the aid of crutches as a result of a broken bone in his foot, sustained while engaged in a friendly wrestle several days ago with Ed Simonsen. The foot pained Mr. Bekker slightly for a few days following the wrestle but it was several days before the fractured bone was discovered.

Claude Bowser went to La Grande Saturday evening, where he took the examination for section foreman, having served the allotted time permitting him to take that examination. Later—Mr. Bowser informed us Tuesday that he had been successful in the examination and had received an appointment of a crew at Lostine, to which place he will soon move.

(From Oregon Scout.) Al Daniels of La Grande was in town Tuesday demonstrating the Reo car. Al reports many sales this spring and says he could dispose of more cars if he could get them.

John Nodine came down from the Park Monday where spent the winter. John says it snowed up there.

Ralph Spray and B. Lamb left Saturday for Salmon River, Idaho for the summer. They will work for Art Miller on his Idaho ranch.

Miss Helena Jacobs, a former Union girl but now of Rexburg, Idaho, arrived Saturday for a visit with her brother, J. H. Elmer Jacobs of this city.

Attorney Ellis Hez of North Powder spent Sunday with Union friends. F. W. Emmerson, of California will speak immediately after church Sunday morning on Main street, on the Out to Win Campaign.

Herbert Ricker, a stockman of Malheur county visited Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ricker. His father accompanied him on his return home.

After an absence of several months Miss Edna Levy has returned home and much improved in health.

Schuyler Blacker is the owner of a new Grant car. This car is having a good run of sales this season.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wasson arrived Tuesday morning from Walla Walla where they spent the past two years. Mrs. Coffinberry, Mrs. Wasson's mother, is in precarious health. The move was made on her account.

Frank Francis and his family, formerly of Oklahoma visited a few days with the families of J. H. McKeehan and Milton Thompson this week. They were neighbors in Oklahoma. They were on their way to Southern Oregon.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox—On a few occasions I have received messages from the beyond.

H. J. Callahan—I always carried a supply of dead cockroaches with me. When I had finished eating I would throw one on the plate. Then I would call the restaurant proprietor, point disgustedly at it, and walk indignantly from the place without settling the bill. It never failed.
