

Protect Your Poultry From Lice

It is more economical and humane to feed chicken lice on a reliable louse destroyer than it is to feed your chickens to the lice. Lice destroy the vitality of fowls and make them easier subjects for cholera and other diseases.

LOUSE DESTROYER

is harmless to chickens, but it is guaranteed to exterminate lice. Poultry should be in perfect condition at this season, provided they are free from pests.

PERSONAL MENTION

John Crogan, an Elgin rancher, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

S. R. Haworth arrived home this morning after an absence of about ten days in Portland and other outside points.

T. J. Tweedy, one of the Umatilla county war-horses, arrived from Pendleton today to look after some business interests.

C. J. Owen, working through Eastern Oregon in the interest of the Theodore Burton campaign, was in La Grande this morning on his way to Wallawa county points. He will return to this city tomorrow night.

Robert Service, of Baker, who is a candidate for Public Service commissioner, was a business visitor in the city this morning. The heavy snowfall on the mountains caused him to abandon an automobile trip across the pass.

Mrs. Bert Oakman, who with Mr. Oakman went to Los Angeles some time ago, returned this morning and went out to Palmer Junction where the family has land interests. She will look after business there for a time, Mr. Oakman remaining in Los Angeles for the present.

J. C. Johnson, inspector of federal buildings and at present supervising the new public building in Pendleton, arrived in La Grande this morning. While here he will inspect the La Grande federal building for the purpose of ascertaining what may be required in the way of painting or other repairing of the building.

Conductor and Mrs. W. E. Regan leave tonight for The Dalles where they will be located hereafter. Mr. Regan has bid in the freight conductor run on the Sandy which was made necessary by the readjustment since the Pilot Rock Junction terminals became effective. Mr. and Mrs. Regan leave a large circle of friends in La Grande, where both have made their home several years prior to their marriage a year or two ago.

Hospital No. es.

Born at the Grande Ronde hospital May 10, to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Carroll, a nine pound son. Mr. Carroll is connected with the general O. W. offices.

C. R. Hibberd, who was stabbed yesterday, was resting easily this morning and his condition was very favorable.

Mrs. Oran Loven has returned to her home in Cove after undergoing treatment at the hospital.
