THE COVE MEETING.

Writer Recites His Version of the Joint Discussion.

Cove, May 17.—(To the Editor)—The Good Road association called a meeting at Maccabee hall 2:30 p. m. Quite a good crowd gathered to hear what they had to say. The opposition to the bonding scheme asked Walter Pierce, C. D. Huffman and M. L. Carter to be present and help with the good work. Permission was asked to have a joint discussion which was refused. The meeting was called to order by George Cochran, president of the association. After a few well chosen remarks such as George can make he introduced Roy Clark, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of La Grande who stated that so far as the bond issue was concerned he had nothing to say but stood for good roads. Next speaker, and the principal one, was C. C. Chapman, former secretary Portland Commercial club, but now editor of "The Voter" a live wire in Portland. He was not here to advise as to voting bonds but to tell what other places had profited by good roads. C. C. made a splendid address, as he surely can. At the close of the meeting an announcement was made that there would be a meeting on the street corner at once to which all were invited by Pierce and company in which the good roads boosters were invited to take part. Walter was the Fair Grounds in Boise Will Be Gathering Spot of Many.

Arrangements have been made to hold the annual camping of the Southern Idaho Conference of Seventh-day Adventists on the Fair Grounds in Boise, May 18 to 28. Members of the churches from Baker City, Blackfoot, Caldwell, Cambridge, Eagle, Heyburn, Nampa, Pocatello, Idaho Falls, Wallace, Weiser, Parma, Salmon, Meridan and many other places in the southern part of the state, as well as towns in eastern Oregon, will join with the members in Boise in making the meeting a success. About 15 will go from La Grande, most of them in autos.

This will be one of several hundred similar gatherings that will be held in practically every state in the Union, every province in Canada, and various foreign countries, during the spring and summer months, which the Adventists style the camping season. During the ten-days' stay in Boise the campers will live in tents, and also hold their daily meetings under canvas.

In addition to a large number of family tents which will be furnished with household effects in order to make the campers as comfortable as first to speak. After reviewing the work of the meeting at the hall and citing the experience of other counties in the state he answered many questions to apparent satisfaction of the large crowd assembled. Mr. Huffman told of his recent visit to the State grange at Grants Pass, where he had met many residents of the various counties in the state where bonds had been voted and the same story came from all of them that disaster had followed in every event.

Karl Stackland was called and made a few brief remarks in favor of bonds.

C. C. Chapman was called and practically corroborated what Mr. Huffman had already said.

George Cochran who had had a pretty thorough grilling by Walter Pierce was asked to explain some of his figures and statements published in the press and made a feeble effort at same.
