

Distance No Barrier

Our Parcel Post Service is alike valuable to those who live at too great a distance to visit the store and to those who may live nearer, but for some reason cannot conveniently come.

Our ability to care for this trade is due to our superior stock and to our experience in the mail-order business.

We guarantee satisfaction in all cases.

OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC

PAT FOLEY ADDRESSES THE VOTERS.

Final Word Spoken on Present Campaign.

To the Voters of Union County:
The campaign is on. It certainly gives me pleasure and gratification at this time to announce to all the voters in this District that no matter who is nominated for the office which I seek at the close of the polls tomorrow when we receive the people's verdict there will be no chance for any ill feeling or hard words.

During this campaign I have found my opponents most excellent competitors and at no time have they wavered from the honest deal and decent controversy.

I am a true believer in the Oregon system and I think that every man who aspires for office should bear in mind that he is not serving himself but serving the people—I mean by this the people's choice.

As the people elect us as their representatives in the law-making body of the State, it is quite natural that we should obey the best thoughts and wishes of the tax payers to the fullest consideration and at the same time be seriously conscientious in regard to keeping taxes as low as to be fair and just to all.

In these sentiments I am a firm believer and if the Republicans of Union County nominate me I will do precisely what the obligation of office requires.

Respectfully yours,

Pat Foley

An Appreciation.

To the Editor:
On the eve of political campaigns it is quite natural and just that we should look about and cast our serious thoughts towards those whom we trust, respect and revere.

While but a stranger in this splendid country of Union County, I have had numerous opportunities to meet and endeavor to understand those who are our public guardians especially in civil life.

It may seem somewhat flattering to mention one who has made good. I am referring now to Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe who is a candidate for the superintendency of schools in Union County. She is soliciting the votes of the Republican party, of which she is a loyal member, and while she is entitled to the support of that organization we should all join in and nominate and elect her overwhelmingly. It is not wrong to suppose that Democrats and Progressives should take pleasure and pardonable pride in casting every vote for such a splendid woman.

Some may say that the office of county superintendent should belong to a man. Why should it belong to a man? In this age where every vital question surrounding the home, is so fostered and responsible to the motherhood of this nation it is quite impossible to see or even to understand why the candidacy of any man should be given the preference or the serious thought over that of a good woman. This is said in no way to reflect on any one who may aspire to this office.

Union County knows Mrs. Ivanhoe. She needs no recommendation from boosters; no encomiums from those who seek favors; flattery does not spoil her. Those who know her, love her best. Her work in her modest fashion is a loyal library in education, and if she is continued in office, which is the expectation and the hope of serious minded persons La Grande's educational heritage will be monumentally increased.

AN APPRECIATIVE ONE.

A Golden Chassis.

What is described as a "Golden Chassis" was in the east bound express car today noon enroute from Spokane to Twin Falls, where it goes as a part of an exhibit at an automobile show. This frame work is of the Studebaker class and the gold chassis is valued at $25,000. It was in personal charge of a representative of the auto company which exhibits the chassis.

Queen Escapes Bombs.

Rome, May 18.—Queen Helena and Princesses Jolanda and Mafalda, narrowly escaped death Monday when Austrian aviators attacked two trains near Venice. The Austrians learned the queen and princesses were traveling.

Spent shrapnel bullets flew from anti-aircraft guns and showered the royal train while troops tried to drive the aviators away. An aerial bomb exploded near the express train.

The Queen and Jolanda were returning from the front on a visit to the king. Mafalda was going to meet her mother on another train.

Passengers were thrown into panic but the queen maintained her composure.

Unable to withstand the fire of aircraft guns, the hostile machines retreated.

An enormous crowd greeted the royal party on arriving at Padua, and cheered the queen and princesses enthusiastically.

It is believed spies advised Austrians of the queen's whereabouts.

Returned From Harney.

Fred Young and his sister, Miss Bertha Young, arrived home yesterday from the Catlow valley in Harney county where they are holding down homesteads. Fred will avail himself of his legal right of absence and will have charge of his ice delivery business during the summer. Miss Young will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young, during the vacation from the homestead.
