

COVE COMES HERE SUNDAY

VALLEY LEAGUE SET FOR AN-OTHER COMBAT

Imbler Meets Elgin At Imbler Tomorrow While Cove Is Here

Where they play tomorrow:
Cove at La Grande. Elgin at Imbler.

La Grande will tomorrow get to see a club in the Valley league which, while playing elsewhere, has not been in La Grande during the progress of the league season to date. It is Cove, with the famed-Alexander brothers in the battery role. Imbler and Cove have played two splendid games thus far, and the La Grande team admits they will not have any pinch on tomorrow's combat. For the first time since the league opened, Imbler and Elgin will meet and it remains to be seen what that combination will develop.

But that is neither here nor there, for it is Cove that La Grande faces now, and she must win or take a depressed station in the league standing.

The team that gets away to a good start in a 12-game league like this, has a good chance to win the pennant, and visa versa. But the Cove worm is said to be turning, and after two weeks of preparatory work, the cherry pickers claim to have a bunch that can take La Grande to the cleaners.

Pastor is Active At 98

Philadelphia, May 11.—The Rev. Dr. David Tully, of Media, Pa., was recently appointed a commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church at Atlantic City.

What makes this announcement astonishing is the fact that Dr. Tully is nearly 98 years old. He celebrated his 97th birthday on August 29, 1915. He is said to be the oldest Presbyterian minister in the United States, and from present indications, will continue to be the oldest of them all for several years to come.

"The grand old man of Media" was born in Scotland—in Birgham, on the River Tweed, a district made famous by Robert Burns and Sir Walter Scott. Burns had been dead only 22 years when "David" Tully was born.

"JAIL BUILDER" ESCAPES

John King, Who Wanted New Prison, on Deserts Honor Gang at Joliet

Chicago, May 11.—John King wanted to help build the new prison in Joliet. He was doing time in the old one, being a well-known Chicago robber. His appeal to Warden Zimmerman convinced the latter that King was an unusual character, that his was a nature deeply altruistic. "All right," said the warden.

John King went forth to build the new jail. They let him stay in the bunkhouse when he volunteered his services. What John King had in mind was revealed the other day when the roll was called and no John King answered. He had fled. His escape is the second within a week from the honor gang.

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

Everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it, before breakfast.

To feel as fine as the proverbial fiddle, we must keep the liver washed clean, almost every morning, to prevent its sponge-like pores from clogging with indigestible material, sour bile and poisonous toxins, says a noted physician.

If you get headaches, it's your liver. If you catch cold easily, it's your liver. If you wake up with a bad taste, furred tongue, nasty breath or stomach becomes rankled, it's your liver. Sallow skin, muddy complexion, watery eyes all denote liver uncleanness. Your liver is the most important, also the most abused and neglected organ of the body. Few know its function or how to release the damned-up body waste, bile and toxins. Most folks resort to violent emolent, which is a dangerous, salivating chemical which can only be used occasionally because it accumulates in the tissues, also attacks the bones.

Every man and woman, sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, to wash from the liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, the poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Limestone phosphate does not restrict the diet like calomel, because it can not salivate, for it is harmless and you can eat anything afterwards. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, and any pharmacist will sell you a quarter pound, which is sufficient for a demonstration of how hot water and limestone phosphate cleans, stimulates and freshens the liver, keeping you feeling fit day in and day out.

FANS ROAST HIM: NOW LEADS LEAGUE

"He don't know a ball game from a circus!"

Members of the Cleveland anvil chorus, all at once were singing this dirge last fall, urging the immediate return of Elmer Smith to the sticks. He could hit pretty fair, but he was a mediocre outfielder.

Did Lee Fohl send the youngster back for further seasoning?

He did not. Smittie studied, mastered big league ways and made good. The latest swat statistics quote him with a mark of .388.

According to Tris Speaker the Red Sox of 1915 feared Smith in a pinch more than any other swatter on the Cleveland misfits.

WEEK-END TO HAVE RATES

O-W ADOPTS NEW POLICY FOR SPORTSMEN

Big Territory Can Visit Fishing Grounds On Reduced Rates

Listen, fishermen!

Week-end rates from early June into September will be put on by the O-W. This is in addition to the special rates into Joseph each Summer, and will give special rates from points in Baker County east, to Meacham West, into the North to points between Looking Glass and Lostine. Fishermen can, by this arrangement, leave here Saturday morning, go to Minam, Lostine, Looking Glass or any points and spend Saturday night and return Sunday evening on reduced rates. The week-end proposition calls for return on the Sunday night trains, however. The point of origination goes no farther north than Imbler.

The branch line tracks will again be run at hourly hours on Sunday this Summer, and this combination will make delightful accommodations for sportsmen.

LABOR FAMINE.

Great Demand for Workmen Reported From Baker.

Baker, May 29.—Revived interest in mines and lumbering is making labor so scarce in Baker that employment agencies are delayed from two to three days on an average in filling contracts. There are approximately 10 jobs for every nine men and ranchers have in some instances boosted the standard wage of $35 a month to $40 and board, to secure farm hands.

A large proportion of the unemployed labor available consists of expert woodsmen, but a balance is struck here, for a large proportion of the jobs open are in this same line. It is less easy to fill orders for miners which are placed daily, and men for farm work are the scarcest of all.

From 12 to 14 men are being sent out of Baker daily, it is reported, and as the majority of the jobs are permanent, this is constituting a heavy drain on the local labor supply. Employment agents predict the worst labor famine in years for this summer.

Goodyear Will Enter State.
Salem, Or., May 19.—A declaration of intention to engage in business in the state has been filed with Corporation Commissioner Schulerman by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company, of Akron, O. Its principal office in this state will be in Portland, and its capitalization is $22,000,000. Articles of incorporation have also been filed by the Cook County Business Men's association, Marshfield, capital $200, and the Clement Lumber company, Portland, capital $10,000.

To Stage "Julius Caesar" Hills
Los Angeles, Cal., May 19.—A huge throng of Southern Californians assembled today to pay tribute to the memory of William Shakespeare by observing the centenary of the bard's birthday with an open air production after dark in the hills back of Hollywood, of the tragedy of "Julius Caesar." The sun today went down upon the white marble walls of Rome—just north of Hollywood. The setting of the ancient capital of the world as Shakespeare wrote it has been put in to being on seven knolls in the hills where the pageant will be staged. Tyrone Power, one of the best known of American actors, will play the leading part. Several thousand persons will participate in the play. Battles will be fought by torchlight on the hillside, and one of the final spectacles of the evening will be the huge funeral of dead Roman heroes. Between forty and sixty thousand persons will witness the pageant, it is estimated.

SPORT POT POURRI

Where is that golf link La Grande was going to have?

Fishing has been sadly interfered with lately. Five Points, a good early season stream, resembles the Grande Ronde river. In spite of high water, the streams are not muddy, as a rule.

Announcement comes from Pendleton to the effect that invitations will be issued soon by the Round-Up Tennis club for a tennis tournament to be held there July 2, 3, and 4. President Reineman has appointed the following committee to have charge of the affair and they are at work on the plans which will be announced soon: C. O. Rhinehart chairman; R. H. Horne and Brooke Dickson. The announcement says further:

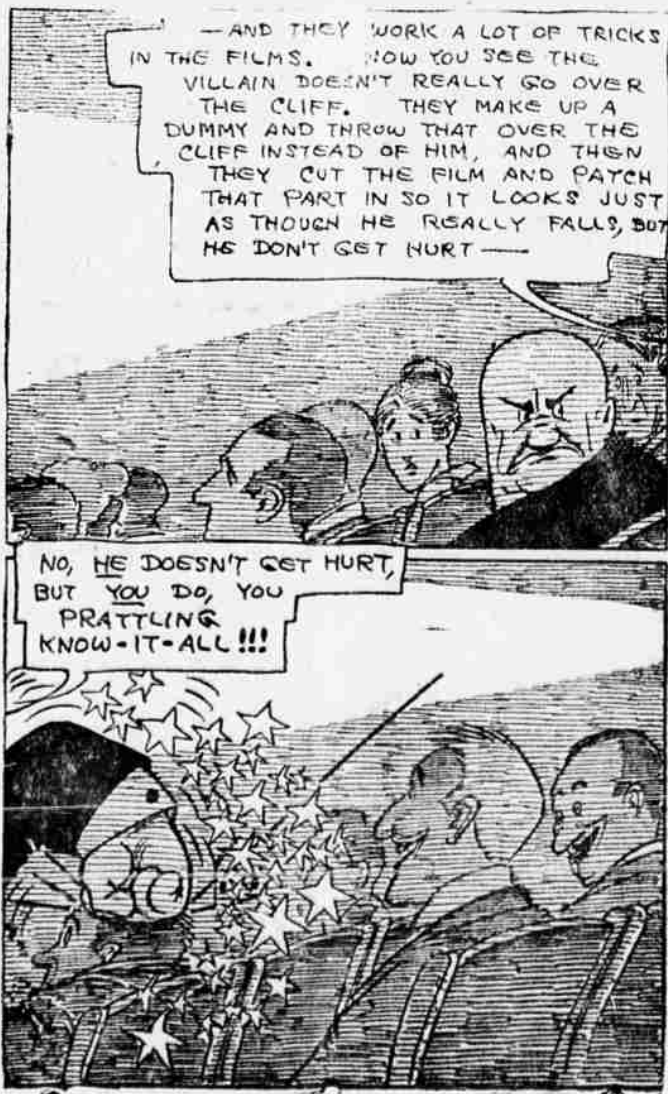

"Under the new rules of the club made this year, women have been made members of the organization and women's doubles and singles and possibly mixed doubles will be staged during the tournament.

"The courts of the club at the Round-Up grounds are in first class condition this year. They have been sanded and the mixture, with the clay which was put on this year makes a fast floor for the game. There are a number of first rate players in the city and, while the game has progressed in other neighboring towns to an extent where the Pendleton players will have competition galore, it is believed that Pendleton's chances for winning the tournament are good.

"This will be the second annual tournament."

New York, May 20.—The 1916 racing season in New York State and in Canada, began today. There will be fifteen stakes and handicaps run off during the eighteen days of racing at the spring meeting at the Belmont Park track, beginning today. Women, when accompanied by escorts will be admitted to the grand stand free on certain days. Every Saturday during the meeting and on all holidays the infield will be free to the public.

Robert Simpson of the Roundup City garage has returned from a trip to Baker and La Grande, says the Pendleton Tribune. He posted mileage signs along the entire route. He says that the roads are in good shape now and that a machine can make its way without difficulty.

Controversy Over Keating Bill Record

The Child Labor Bulletin for May which has just been published contains proceedings of the child labor conference held in Asheville, N. C. in February, which culminated in an attack on the Keating federal child labor bill by Congressman J. J. Britt of Asheville, and an answer to Mr. Britt by Congressman Keating himself. Mr. Britt's speech at his own request, is not published, but a synopsis of its main argument is strong, and asks if it is not just a little strange that among all those splendid gentlemen who sit on the Republican side of the House, only two, when the vote came, found themselves under the spell of "constitutionitis" (a disease which Mr. Keating describes as playing "great havoc among statesmen and near-statesmen"). Parker of New Jersey and Britt of North Carolina were the only Republicans who voted against the bill and Mr. Keating asks if it is possible that they are "the only constitutional lawyers on the Republican side of the House and the only conscientious gentlemen." His speech ends with an appeal for a favorable vote in the Senate so that the Supreme Court may have a chance to pass on the measure, and he reminds his opponents that "if we are beaten in this Congress, we will bob up serenely in the next."

Other interesting features of the proceedings are the telegrams sent the National Child Labor Committee by the Southern Textile Association, and the argument of Mr. Hudson C. Miller, secretary of the Southern Cotton Manufacturers' Association against the Keating bill. That the sentiment in the South is predominately for a federal child labor law is shown in the great number of strong speeches for it made by Southerners. Their standpoint is well summarized by Dr. George T. Winston of Asheville, former president of the University of North Carolina who says, "As a citizen of North Carolina by birth, by education, and by residence, as a Southern man, as a Democrat, as a states' rights man I say, that if the fathers and mothers of little children will not take care of them, if the communities they live in will not take care of them, if their states will not take care of them, then in God's name, let them have the protection and care of the great United States."

Sees Collapse of Industries.
Philadelphia, May 18.—Senator Penrose, addressing the closing session of the National association of hosiery and underwear manufacturers, said that free trade legislation is a menace to the silk and textile industries. These industries are among the first to feel European importations under unrestricted trade conditions. He said American business would have witnessed the most disastrous period in history if the European war had not stopped shipments from abroad, permitting American industries to operate without unfair competition. Unless stern measures are taken regarding free trade before the war ends, hosiery and underwear manufacturers will witness an alarming upheaval, he predicted.
