Tuesday afternoon Hogan hall was again the scene of a delightful social event when Mrs. William Bollons, Mrs. L. A. McAllister and Miss Bollons entertained a number of lady friends at bridge. The decorations consisted of profuse banks of lilacs, tastefully arranged so that the comfortable, home-like interior of the popular hall resembled spring time in all its floral glory. The afternoon was spent at the chosen game for the occasion and good naturedly the honors of the day were contested. Mrs. Richard Jones proved to be the most adept and was awarded first honor, while Mrs. Vincent Palmer followed with a close second. Refreshments were served at a proper hour in the banquet room which was also very artistically decorated.

The Eastern Star social club was entertained by Mrs. F. E. Stilwell Tuesday afternoon. First honors at cards went to Mrs. Lou Given.

Mrs. Thomas' Bible class of the Christian church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Dr. Underwood Thursday afternoon. A contest, that of repeating the names of the books of the Old Testament in their regular order, resulted in the first award going to Gertrude Wagner. There were ample refreshments and the gathering was otherwise enjoyed by the members of the class and their teacher.

A farewell social to Mr. and Mrs. E. Ford was given on the evening of May 15 at the Christian parsonage. About 20 church friends assembled and a pleasant evening of games and refreshments followed. Mr. Ford and wife left on the 5:40 train for Happyville, Colo. Mr. Ford has been chairman of the official board of the Christian church and greatly esteemed by the congregation.

Mrs. Bert Hughes entertained the E. A. F. club last week. High score went to Mrs. Walter Spencer, second honors to Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman, while Mrs. Lee Hanford was awarded consolation. Mrs. Hughes served delicious refreshments and the meeting was in every way a delightful one.

A quiet home wedding was solemnized Wednesday May 17 when, at 7 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nicholids, corner Seventh and N avenue, Miss Harriet O. Nicholids was united in marriage to Joseph R. Whitby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whitby of this city. Only immediate friends and relatives were present at the happy event. Rev. G. L. Clark of the Presbyterian church officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bingner stood up with the wedding party, and pretty little girls carried flowers and the ring. Miss Joseph Evans the former and Evelyn Emahiser the ring-bearer. After the solemn marriage rites were ended, the newlyweds left on No 18 for Anaconda, Mont. where they will make their future home.

During the wedding the bride wore a handsome traveling suit. Miss Nicholids came to La Grande a couple of years ago from Salt Lake and in that time acquired a large acquaintanceship and attained popularity. The groom is a La Grande product, having been schooled here and at Willamette University. He is now connected with the express company at Anaconda.

An appreciative audience Wednesday evening at the Neighborhood club rooms at the Library building listened to an artistic rendition of a group of vocal numbers by Mrs. Eugene Moore of Baker, who appeared here under auspices of the Neighborhood club. It was a genuine treat, and brought popularity to the Baker woman in limitless volume. Gracious, cultured and naturally gifted, Mrs. Moore at once won her audience and held them to the last. Her contralto voice was masterfully handled displaying the voice control of the true artist, and through it all the rich qualities of tone predominated. Many of her numbers were difficult, but she performed magnificently through them all. Many liked Richardson's "Love's Dilemma" the best of all for that particular number gave her the best opportunities to exercise her gifts and culture. The lullaby from "Jocelyn" (Godard) was another number that stood out above the rest, and "Love Whispers" (Willeby) was another rare number. Mrs. Moore will be certain of a capacity house should she in the future favor the city with another recital. Mrs. R. J. Green was at the piano and it must be admitted that her skillful playing lent much to make the recital a genuine success.

The first open air park dance of the season was "pulled off" in the most artistic and entertaining shape by members of the "Nut" club at Riverside park yesterday evening. Taxi facilities were supplied to guests by the club and several machines were kept going transferring the young people to the park grounds. For this event the Mrs. Ingle and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reynolds officiated as the patrons and patronesses. There was a very fine attendance and a most entertaining dance enjoyed by those present. Punch was served and good music assisted the terrific dancing revelers in one of the real events of the season.

The Parkdale club membership look forward to an interesting meeting at Riverside Park next Wednesday afternoon when they will be the guests of Mrs. "Tap" Thomas, who will be assisted by Mrs. Phil Thompson.

SOCIETY WEDDING DODGED

Heiress Wedded at Bedside, But Announced Day Observed

New York, May 20.—This is the wedding day of Miss Emily Ayune McCree, daughter of the late Thomas L. McCree, granddaughter of the late Dr. Benjamin W. McCree and sister of Thomas L. McCree, founder of Vanity Fair—but Miss McCree will not marry Langdon Gillet, director of the Thimble Theatre on Fifth Avenue, today as planned. The explanation is that five weeks ago, after the wedding day had been announced, Miss McCree was taken to the hospital for an operation. The outcome being doubtful. Mr. Gillet went with Dr. Percy S. Grant, the divine who was to have officiated today, and the wedding was solemnized beside the hospital cot on which Miss McCree lay, just before the operation was performed. Miss McCree, which is to say, Mrs. Gillet, is completely recovered today and is enjoying her wedding day immensely, albeit there will be no wedding. Langdon Gillet is the only son of Elsie M. Gillet, and the late Mrs. Susan V. Milnor. Gillet, McCree had known her fiancée for several years, but the engagement and marriage came as quite a surprise to society here.

Mr. Gillet was graduated from Cornell in 1909 and was prominent in amateur vaudeville performances for charity, and several years ago went on the stage professionally. The Gillets are among the old New York families. Mr. Gillet has five sisters, all married: Mrs. Henry Nott Ransom of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Morris Ketchum, Mrs. Arthur P. Adenau, Mrs. William Patterson, who has just joined her husband, Captain William Patterson, Coast Artillery, U. S. A. in Manila, and Mrs. Reginald Sanford, who lives at Danfield, Ore., on a large ranch with Mr. Sanford.

ECHOES FROM UNION.

Union Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Union resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

J. M. Johnson, proprietor of barber shop, Main street, Union, Ore., says: "I think constant standing, weakened by kidneys, causing pain and soreness in my back. One day a customer who heard me complaining, told me Doan's Kidney Pills were good and I got a box. I used them but a short time before I was convinced that the man who recommended them to me knew what he was talking about." (Statement given November 8th, 1907.)

Over five years later, Mr. Johnson said: "I use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and find them just the thing for irregular kidney action and kidney ailments."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills. See name that Mr. Johnson has twice publicly recommended. Foster-McMillan Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv. 12-11-15

Modart Corsets Front Laced.

"Most Any" corset won't do!

"Most any Medicine" wouldn't do if you were ill, would it? You want the particular medicine for your specific ailment.

And if you really care about having a good figure—about retaining your youth as long as possible—about increasing your grace and charm—then "most any" corset won't do either.

You want the particular corset for your specific figure needs.

Naturally corsets differ—in just the proportion that the abilities of their designers differ. So—to be certain of getting the best corset for your figure—it is essential that you select one created by a designer of known skill and reputation.

In the world of corsetry Jennings is generally accounted the foremost designer. He designs Modart Front Laced Corsets exclusively.
