MODART CORSETS
Front Laced

See and Feel Yourself in a MODART
There is only one way to truly appreciate the style, comfort and poise of a MODART Corset, and that is to have a trial fitting.
The designer of MODART Corsets is considered foremost in the world of corsetry. No other corset can claim his skill. Every design originated by this style creator must meet his approval as an anatomist also.
The result is a corset that gives you the satisfaction of the smartest style and the assurance of health and comfort. The MODART gives lines that are chie, distinctive, graceful, yet allowing free and easy respiration.
It can be adjusted to the most minute requirements of individual figure lines. It affords a gentle, uplifting support at all times.
Health, comfort and fashion urge a MODART fitting.

Fortunes in Farthings.
It is well known that shopkeepers make pounds by ignoring farthings or by giving something for them that is worth far less than a farthing, but where shopkeepers make the pounds banks and the English government make their hundreds of pounds. If a farthing is due from you in taxes you are charged once. On the other hand, you are never paid once for a farthing.

The same principle is applied to fractions of pounds. Banks in reckoning interest for themselves call any part of £1 a full pound, whereas in reckoning interest for you odd shillings are left out of account. Thus for a deposit of £99 9s. 11d. you would receive interest on £99 only.

It is amazing how the state profits by not paying fractions of pence.
The government has a special fund in which are placed the fractions of pence withheld in paying dividends on government stock. This fund amounted to more than £150,000 in ten years before being used for other purposes.
As far as the government is concerned, farthings mean a lot.—London Adversers.

His Little Lot.
There were some interesting episodes in the life of Sir Charles Egan-Smith.
Once in the market place of an Afghanistan town he was fired at by a native. He lodged a complaint with the ameer, who appeared to take no notice of the incident, merely remarking, "That's all right." Sir Charles complained again and met with the same reply. He still thought that the ameer was treating a serious matter with less consideration than it deserved, but thought it advisable to say no more on the subject. About a week afterward he was invited by the ameer to ride with him. They rode for some distance outside the town, and they passed Gilbert after "Yibur. At length Sir Charles said, "Your highness has been busy of late." "Oh, no," replied the ameer; "they are your little lot." He had seized all the members of the would-be assassin's family and hanged every one of them.

Be Natural.
Holmes says that there are six people present whenever two meet in conversation—the real A, the real B, A as he sees himself, B as he sees himself, A as B sees him and B as A sees him.
The second comes back when one goes out upon the street and considers himself and the other people who pass, particularly those who seem on the slippery road to success. It is not they themselves who go by; it is what they would have other people think them.
If they are young and inexperienced they must tighten up their faces with an artificial solemnity; if they are getting on in years they must affect an artificial snappiness. They wear their outward aspects like clothes.

One feels like crying in the ears of young men: "Be natural. Live or die, sink or swim, survive or perish, but be yourselves."—New York Globe.

The Primrose.
The primrose has suffered injustice from the poets, who seem to regard it as a floral weakling. Shakespeare wrote of "pale primroses" that die "ere they can behold bold Phoebus in his strength." Spencer regrets "so fair a flower" should perish through "untimely tempest." Milton laments the "rather primrose that forsaken, dies." It many later poets have written of it in similar strain. Why? For the primrose is a hardy plant and will be found where few other flowers can exist, on the mountain heights of Europe and Asia and even on the highest ranges of the Himalayas. And Disraeli recognized its color in the fried eggs upon his breakfast table.—London Notes and Queries.

He Was Right.
A man rushed to the entrance of a lunatic asylum in the middle of the night and yelled to the keeper to let him in.
"Let me in!" he cried. "I have suddenly gone insane."
The keeper woke up, thrust his head out of a first story window and bel-lowed down in a rage:
"What? Come here at this time of night? Man, you must be crazy!"— Brooklyn Eagle.

The Unexpected.
Amateur Photographer (touring in the country)—Pardon me, sir, but would you object to my taking your daughter just as she is? Farmer Green —Well, this is sudden; but take her, and be happy. Keep yer eyes on him.
Sal. till I scoot round for the parson.—
London Mail.

Just a Suggestion.
"I'm still waiting for you to pay me that $5 you owe me, Dubson."
"Oh, don't let that worry you."
"That's what I'm trying to do, but I would feel greatly encouraged if you would let it worry you occasionally."— Birmingham Age-Herald.

Curious Fishing Plant.
There is a strange vegetable growth under the sea called the fishing plant, which opens and shuts periodically, like a big mouth. When fishes are near enough to this wonderful plant, all of a sudden it closes its "mouth" and swallows them.

The Rest Hour.
"Bobby, why aren't you playing with your cousin Ethel?"
"Gee whiz, mother! Don't I get an hour off at noon?"—Pack.

Poor Experience.
"Experience is de best teacher," said Uncle Eben. "but gitlin' arrested ain't no way to study law."—Washington Star.

Over Last Week.

Portland Stockyards, May 23.— With stock selling at practically the same price as on Monday, the swine trade at North Portland was considered steady. General market for good stuff remains around $8.95@9.00 here and only a limited supply brought a fraction above this during the last 24 hours.

There was a fair marketing of sheep in the North Portland yards for the day, with practically all arrivals in that line from the Willamette valley.
Added to Monday's disappointing run of stuff in the cattle pens at North Portland was another small run during the last 24 hours. Only odd ends and ends are now coming forward from local places and extreme values are not tested.

MAGNATE IS IN ARREARS

Wife Says She Found Husband in Another Woman's Home Chicago, May 1.—Walter E. Kirkpatrick, ex-vice-president of the Chicago Title & Trust Company, now a traction magnate of Kansas City Mo., was accused recently of another charge in a supplemental bill filed by his wife, Mrs. Florence E. Kirkpatrick, in the Superior Court. Etta Lee is named by Mrs. Kirkpatrick, who alleges she found her husband and the Lee woman together in the former's home in Kansas City when she went there to try to effect a reconciliation.

Kirkpatrick, the bill states, was formerly secretary and treasurer of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company of Kansas City, Clay County & St. Joe Interurban Railroad.
He owns property worth $100,000 Mrs. Kirkpatrick said, and received $54,000 compensation from the railroad. She asks the custody of her two children, Walter Jack Crocroft Kirkpatrick, 3 years old, and Gloria, 4 years old.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick charged her husband with seizing her by the throat and choking her when she visited him in Kansas City. He also threatened her life, she said. The bill also sets forth Kirkpatrick is $4000 alimony in arrears since December, 1912. She said she was forced to mortgage her home at 6330 Sheridan road to obtain money to live.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick first sued her husband early in 1912. She obtained an order for $250 a month temporary al-mony and free rent of the family residence at 6330 Sheridan road. She also had an income of $150 a month of her own.

But her husband didn't keep up his payments, so she went into court and obtained judgment for $1500 for the period from August, 1914 to July, 1915, inclusive. A judgment for $5,- 500 is for payments due from February, 1915 to March, 1916, exclusive.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and nauseable, your meals sour and almost uneatable. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.
If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have cold, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phos-phated hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.
