

Safe Drug Buying

The average person knows little about drug quality. Realizing this, we have, ever since we started in business, made every effort to safeguard our customers. The growth of our business is proof enough that we have succeeded. The public knows that what is bought here is reliable. It also knows from years of experience that every promise we make either verbally or in our advertising will be fulfilled to the letter.

You can depend upon all our goods whether drugs or other items handled by us, and there are many things here that you doubtless use daily.

To Rid Child of Worms.

Don't scold the fretful, nervous child. Often its due to worms. Get rid of these by giving one-half to one lozenge Kickapoo Worm Killer, a laxative worm candy. Give only plain nourishing food, lots of out-door exercise and put to bed early. Watch stools and continue giving Kickapoo Worm Lozenges, they will positively remove the worms. 25c at druggists.

BRANDEIS IS VICTOR.

Judiciary committee vote a decided victory.

Friends of Brandeis are jubilant. They forecasted a similar division on the floor of the Senate and Brandeis will win by an easy margin. Cummings was absent from the committee when the vote was polled. His ballot would have counted for Brandeis. A protracted fight is expected in the Senate and likely will come within the week. A long debate and possibly a filibuster is expected.

House Considers O.C. Bill.

Washington, May 24.—Under agreement to vote after a three hour debate, the House today considered the Oregon-California land grant bill, giving back to the United States title to 3,000,000 acres granted to the railroad under terms which the corporation violated. Representative Ferris interrupted with many questions. Foster objected to the bill because it doesn't give enough proceeds to the government. Opponents have printed full-page advertisements objecting to the measure because it is unfair to the railroads. S. A. D. Puter of Oregon signed the advertisements.

PRIZE FOR BEST SLOGAN

ARCADE THEATRE WILL GIVE PASS TO WIT.

Three-Word Slogan Sought for Arcade Advertising.

Every man, woman and child in this vicinity has a chance to win a six months' pass to the Arcade theatre. All any person has to do is to think up a three-word slogan which will be of the best use in the advertising of the Arcade theatre.

Any catchy phrase, not over three words long, that will set out the merits of the house and rivet attention to the Arcade whenever it is seen, will be just what is wanted, but the person that presents to the Arcade management the most catchy one, the one with the best punch to it, will get the six-months' pass.

Competitors for this very desirable prize, should leave their contributions at the box office properly addressed so that when the decision is reached the writer's name and address will be available.

Whooping Cough.

One of the most successful preparations in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. S. W. McClinton, Blandon Springs, Ala., writes: "Our baby had whooping cough as bad as most any baby could have it. I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it soon got him well." Obtainable everywhere.

John Frawley, candidate for Republican nomination to the office of county treasurer drew the heaviest unopposed vote of any in the Friday primaries.

Sheriff's Office Draws Vote.
The Democratic sheriff contest brought out the heaviest vote on the entire Democratic ticket. By that race as a measure, 1138 Democrats expressed their preferences in the primary, and Woodrow Wilson got 1058.

Arthur Curtiss won the Democratic nomination for office of county surveyor.

The total vote cast on the Dem-cratic ticket as declared by the board of canvassers, follows:

30,000 WOMEN AT LUNCH.

entertain in a vacuous way for the giddy, skittish, gabbling women," said Mrs. Hammond today, "but we are entertaining the best and most thoughtful women of the country, many of whom had to make great personal sacrifices to get here and who are seriously concerned with bettering conditions that so sorely need bettering among us. 'I am particularly interested in the establishment of a World Court such as is now under consideration and in which women and their interests should play a big part. 'History is in the making. Shall it again chronicle that woman has left her paradise to be guarded by the flaming sword? If swords are needed, we must have swords and plenty of them. Events have shown that to be unprepared is to invite disaster, but swords and guns and armament of war are only the primitive needs of a nation. 'The home is the citadel of our national life. To safeguard its strength, to protect its moral soundness, to keep high the glorious banners of our national ideals; these are the duties which call to American women today. 'Men of America, let us give you help. In the name of American womanhood I offer you our service. Take us into your councils as we must certainly share in your sorrows if mistakes be made.' Mrs. Hammond's is one of the biggest luncheons ever given. Just imagine how much of a job it would be to supply each guest with nothing more than a glass of water. Thirty thousand glasses of water, 30,000 knives and 30,000 forks, 50,000 plates of soup and 30,000 napkins, 90,000 spoons and maybe 250,000 to 300,000 dishes. Pity the poor dishwasher on a day like this! The luncheon is being staged in the armory, probably the only place in New York large enough for it to be staged. And staged exactly describes
