PERSONAL MENTION
 Miss Lettie Barker left on last night's train for Castle Rock, Wash., to make her home after a visit with friends and relatives in this city.
 George Stoddard, of the Grande Ronde Lumber company, left today on a business trip of a week to points eastward, including Salt Lake.
 Mrs. Rinehart, wife of W. E. Rinehart, local commercial man, left last night on an eastern visit which will include St. Paul and Duluth.
 Mrs. Sam Parker leaves this evening for Hot Springs, South Dakota, where she is called on account of the serious illness of her father.
 Frank Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Clark, has returned from an absence of nine months in Spokane where he is a student in the Houston boarding school. He is here for the summer vacation.
 Mr. A. Bergeron, a musician, is here from Boise to remain for a considerable time.
 Miss Addie Ferris, formerly of this city, has returned from Dillon, Mont., to visit relatives. Miss Ferris is a graduated nurse and may decide to continue her stay in La Grande indefinitely.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Henline and Troy Welper, all bound over to the grand jury on a kidnapping charge, left this morning for Kearney, Neb., where Mr. Henline's mother is critically ill. Their bonds have been arranged to extend to Kearney and they will be within call of the grand jury summons server. Attorney Walker of Kearney returned home with them.
 John H. Rudd, Boys' field secretary for the Y. M. C. A., was among those who went to Pendleton this morning. He has been spending a few days here preliminary to the big conference.
 Rev. Chas. A. Edwards of the Methodist church returned home this morning from Saratoga Springs, N. Y., where he attended the quadrennial of the Methodist church. He reports a most profitable journey and delightful entertainment at the conference.
 Mrs. Lee Morelock left on No. 6 today for Delores, Col., where she will join her sister Mrs. "Bud" Hughes whose husband is critically ill at Hot Springs, Ark.
 Attorney T. H. Crawford leaves tomorrow for the South. He will first go to his old home in Arkansas, and then to the St. Louis convention as a delegate at large from Oregon.

New faces fast approaching our place of business.
 It's the New Kind of a Grocery Store for La Grande and the way to find us out is to make us a visit and see our system and the lines we handle.
 We know where and how to buy.
 Advice is Free.
 We have lines you never dreamed of—get your glimmers on the goods, then get the price. It don't hurt to look around—just as you would in buying a home.
 It's the people who deal with us that's doing our advertising.
 We are the Spud Store—200 bags more coming next Monday.
 Ask your neighbor what we're doing on Canned Fruits.
 Bring us your Eggs and Cord Wood.
 Respectfully yours
