

STOCK STOW RULES READY

MANAGEMENT FIRM BELIEVERS IN PREPAREDNESS

Plenty of Time Given Exhibitors to Study Regulations

Union men and women who think out and sustain the Union Stock show as a superior function of its kind through the Northwest, are firm believers in preparedness—not necessarily governmental preparedness, but preparedness that spells success for their show. Along this line of preparedness, they have issued a handsome schedule of rules and regulations pertaining to the show which occurs the middle of June this year. In this booklet the management has set out many things exhibitors and the public at large want to know. The complete premium list is contained therein but on this particular date the Observer is going to reproduce only the general rules and the program for the big show, reserving the premiums proper for a later date. Here is something of what the management has to say:

General Information

All applications for entries must be filed with the Secretary on or before June 13, 1916. No entry fee will be charged. Free feed and shelter will be furnished all stock exhibited. In cases where animals are duly registered, such registration certificates must be submitted to the committee for approval prior to judging. Proof of registry must accompany entry.

Make entries early. All exhibits must be in place not later than 10 a. m. June 14, 1916. Exhibits must remain on the show grounds the entire three days. Entries should be made only in name of the owner.

Information for Exhibitors

Exhibitors will please read the following rules and send their entries in as early as possible. No entry fee will be required to accompany same.

All exhibits must be on the grounds and must be placed and ready for exhibition not later than 10 a. m. June 14.

A committee appointed by the Association shall examine all exhibits for the purposes of determining whether eligible for the class which they are entered.

The exhibition will be opened to the public June 14, 15, 16.

Admissions

The price of admission for adults, 50c. Children under twelve years of age, 25c.

Admission to grandstand extra. Seats in bleachers free.

A free pass will be issued to each exhibitor by applying to the secretary, also to all necessary attendants to stock.

The names of all exhibitors and attendants must be written on the tickets in ink by the secretary, and are positively not transferable under any circumstances.

Judges

The single expert judge system will be the policy of this show, and in every case the judge is selected with the utmost care, and as far as possible will be of state or national repute.

It is the intention of the management that no premium or distinction shall be given any animal that is not deserving.

Awards

Colors denoting awards will be as follows:
 Royal Purple Championship
 Blue First
 Red Second
 White Third
 The ribbons will be placed on winners immediately after the decision of the judges.

Parade

Parade will be formed on the grounds and will take place promptly at 1 p. m. on each day of the show, June 14, 15, 16.

All stock exhibited must take part. It is not the object of this Association to dictate to exhibitors when or how they should properly prepare and put their horses or other exhibits in show shape, but perhaps a few words along these lines for better guidance may not be amiss, and in fact may be somewhat opportune. It is hoped, however, that remarks under this heading will be taken by all interested in the same kindly manner in which they are given. For instance, an intending exhibitor may have an excellent animal or animals good enough to exhibit running in his pasture, but if he only gets them up, say a day or two before the show, they are bound to look more or less rough and not in the best of condition and properly fitted up, while another exhibitor may have animals of the same class in up-to-date show shape, and consequently walks off with the ribbon, whereas, if his competitor had only had his animals up to the mark likewise the ribbon might have been his. Attention should be given to all matters in posture a horse in shape for the show in plenty of time, not overlooking the proper dressing of animals when showing is necessary.

Classification

Any animal can compete in more than one class, and in any and every prize and sweepstake groups or special to which they are eligible under the classification.
 All animals pure bred must be registered with a registry association recognized by the United States government, unless otherwise stated in classification. Pure bred animals under one year need not be registered if the sire and dam are registered, as above mentioned.

Singing Kaffir Boys Present Unique And Novel Program at Chautauqua

Five Kaffir Boys Brought From Africa by Balmer Sing English and Native Songs In Costume on Last Night of Chautauqua

KAFFIR BOYS ARE WIZARDS

ATTRACTION AT CHAUTAUQUA A HEADLINER

Strange Little People Will Appear Before Public Here

If you can visualize one of the most imaginative romantic and spell-weaving chapters of Treasure Island or Robinson Crusoe, animated in actual life before you, pulsating with all the weird mystery, charm and enchantment of an almost unknown region of the Dark Continent, you can get just a suggestion of Balmer's Wonderful Singing Kaffir Boys, positively the most unique, and by all odds the biggest single chautauqua feature attraction touring the country. They have appeared before more than two million people, in over three thousand cities, towns and chautauquas of Great Britain, France, Canada and the United States, receiving tremendous ovations everywhere. At Chautauqua, New York, they divided honors with ex-President Theodore Roosevelt in drawing the greatest audiences of the summer. They will be heard in La Grande.

The Kaffirs are a vivid study in atmosphere realism. Costumed in all the motley glamour, bespangled brilliance of native regalia, they project a living page from the tribal life, customs and traditions of the African jungles. They give tribal ceremonies, with the accompanying melodious chant of native music, and their war dance is done with such enthusiasm, such abandoned ecstasy that they never fail to create a corresponding degree of excitement among their hearers.

The intrinsic quality of the Kaffir boys' wonderful singing is a marvelous natural purity of voice and resonant intonation—a clarity of word, tone, enunciation rarely found among singers. It was this fresh, bell-like clearness of their voices that especially appealed to Mr. Balmer during his travels through Africa. Recognizing the possibilities of proper training, he devoted his time in perfecting the Kaffir Boys' choir. They sing solos, duets, trios, quartets, part songs and choruses. Mr. Balmer, singing bass, Miss Clark, accompanying singing contralto, the boys singing alto, soprano and baritone, making an exceptionally well balanced ensemble. The boys can and do sing in the language of the several tribes which they represent, but most of their selections are rendered in good understandable English, every syllable distinct.

Appropriately interwoven with the songs, ceremonies and pantomimes are brief fascinating stories of the wild jungle life, tales of witchcraft, where the boys were found, their history, how obtained and a lot of other information of vital interest by Mr. Balmer and Miss Clark.

The Kaffir boys are famous the world over for the peculiar grace and telling agility of their movements, the sparkle of their dancing eyes and the spontaneous radiance of their smiles. There are other big things at the chautauqua. It is a great program, but the Kaffir Boy Choir, with fresh laurels won before the royalty and dignitaries of Europe, the phenomenal success attending their appearance throughout extended eastern itineraries, is unmistakably the most pretentious chautauqua offering ever presented in the west.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!
 Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.
 To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.
 Before breakfast every day, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour life and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.
 A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion sallow, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.
