ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

Last evening the Kaffee Klatch met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Byrkit as hosts. Guests for eight tables played during the evening, with service of delicious refreshments as a concluding feature. Mrs. W. M. Nicholds, a special guest, won high score among ladies at play while E. E. Kirtley was highest among the men.

Mrs. Fred Kiddle was a very charming hostess to the Thursday Auction club this week at her suburban home. Guests from La Grande, including Mrs. Laura B. Nash of Pendleton and Mrs. Chas. E. Cochran of Portland, who are visiting here, motored out to Island City for the function. High score was won by Mrs. T. N. Murphy.

One of the closing functions of the afternoon section of the Sans Souci this Spring occurred at the home of Mrs. Fred Kiddle at Island City a week ago when she entertained for that club. Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp won high score. Mrs. Kiddle's entertainment to the club is probably the last for the summer.

Miss Ruth Olson, daughter of Roadmaster Olson of the O-W. company, left this morning for San Francisco where she plans to remain for the summer on a visit with relatives and friends.

Golda Campbell was hostess to members of the Oawissa club Wednesday evening, leading in the social entertainment and also supplying the refreshments for the occasion.

Miss Ruth Selders and Miss Sylvia Glass are among those in attendance at the Girls' conference in Pendleton. Miss Selders will go to The Dalles and spend the summer with relatives but will return to La Grande to be ready for her school duties in September.

The entertainment given by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs last Thursday evening was a pronounced success. The Thompson's "Family Band" was something new to many present as only a few knew we were fortunate enough to have such a talented family in the vicinity. The musical numbers on the program were all thoroughly enjoyed. The recitations and the tableau were well worth hearing and seeing. The talks on "The Aim of Odd Fellowship" and "Brotherly Love" made each one present realize more fully the great work the order is doing. The fun of the evening came when the Herr twins pulled off a boxing contest. No decision was given the contestants. After the entertainment refreshments were served in the banquet hall. The program follows: Selection—Thompson Band. Address, "Brotherly Love"—A. Marker. Vocal Solo—Mrs. T. J. Scroggins. Reading—Gladys Neukirchner. Violin Solo—Miss Bertha Young. Quartet—Robbs, Harding, Knautz and Winters. Selection—Thompson's Band. Recitation—Evelyn Smith. Vocal Solo—Jay Shaw. Address, "Aim of Odd Fellowship"—H. E. Coolidge. Vocal solo—L. D. Butler. Tableau, with violin accompaniment—Estel Webb and Bertha Young. Recitation—Thompson's Band. Selection—Wanda Smith. Boxing Contest—The Herr twins.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Jack Childs informally, but very charmingly, entertained several young ladies, complimenting Miss Esther Maxwell, of Lewiston, Idaho, who is the house guest of Miss Dorothy Haworth. The afternoon was spent at needle-work. The hostess served a dainty collation. Miss Isabelle Miller added greatly to the enjoyment of those present by rendering several delightful vocal selections.

Regular Saturday night dances at Rex Hall in the future will be conducted by A. S. Quinter and A. Bergeron who have taken charge of the Saturday evening affairs for the summer, giving their first dance this evening. They will supply good music and promise the public an interesting series of dances in that hall.

Mrs. Walter Spencer was hostess to the F. A. F. club last Friday at her home on O Avenue. Mrs. Henry Hill scored highest and Mrs. Hibberd was second. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the game.

Mrs. Frank Bay is spending the early Summer months with her mother, Mrs. Crawford at Reith, where Mrs. Crawford is proprietor of the railroad boarding house.

Mrs. C. J. Aperule has left the hospital though still confined to her bed. She is recovering nicely. Her new address is 1319 X avenue.
