If Quality Counts Anywhere It Counts When Men Buy Work Clothes

And therefore quality counts with us when we select our stocks of clothes for men who work in the fields, in the shops or at any trade.

Most men want their overalls and work shirts cut full and roomy—they want garments that will permit them to bend or turn with ease. They want socks and underwear that will give the best of service and so on down the line. Our stocks embrace only the lines that will give the service you want for the money you spend. Our R. C. U. affiliations enable us to buy at lower prices and consequently to sell you better goods for less money. You'll find these R. C. U. values in work clothes decidedly worth while.
