SHOOTING AT INDIAN FIESTA

TWO WHITE MEN INVOLVED IN SHOOTING BRAWL.

Indians Give Chase After White Man Who Shot Companion.

Pendleton, June 8.—George Spearman, a colored man in the employ of Frank Roach, was shot about noon today by Charles Runyan at the Indian cattle corral at the north fork of the McKay. Deputy Sheriff James Estes, Dr. D. J. McPaul, Major Swartzlander, Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely of the Indian reservation have gone to the scene of the tragedy. It is reported Spearman is dying.

Very few particulars could be obtained this afternoon concerning the affair. The Indians are holding the second of a series of roundups at the McKay corral today. The men got into some sort of an altercation and Runyan shot Spearman. Frank Roach rode to the house of W. M. Wright about 1:30 p. m. and notified the sheriff's office. A doctor and the sheriff were requested to hasten to the scene.

Spearman is well known around Pendleton and has been working on the Roach farm for some time. Runyan has no occupation but follows the roundups around. He has ridden in several of the Pendleton roundups. The last seen of Runyan he was riding over the hill at breakneck speed with a bunch of Indians in close pursuit.

SHERRY SHOWS

A WIFE'S SACRIFICE.

Sherry's Theatre Has Attractive Program for Its Patrons.

Should a wife sacrifice her good name, expel herself from society, tarnish her honor and lose her husband to protect from reproach one she loves? Should she, to help a scapegoat brother, make of herself a shunned creature, to live henceforth under a burden of shame? How far should an honorable woman persist in sense of loyalty to one dear to her to keep that person from being dishonored? Almost all people at some time or other have their loyalty put to such a test as you witness in this wonderful picture "A Wife's Sacrifice," presented at Sherry's tonight for the last time.

Hill Memorial Set. Spokane, Wash., June 9.—June 27 will be James J. Hill memorial day in Spokane and scores of other cities in the northwestern states which the late railroad builder aided in developing.

In Spokane a big memorial meeting, under the auspices of the chamber of commerce will be participated in by all civic organizations, it is announced by William S. McCrea, president of the chamber of commerce.

"We are asking cities in Washington, Idaho, Montana, the Dakotas and Minnesota to mark the day in appropriate fashion," states Mr. McCrea. "The Great Northern railroad and all companies serving the northwest will be asked to halt service on all their lines for five minutes at a designated hour on June 27. We are endeavoring to have business men in all lines observe the day in some way as an acknowledgement of the gratitude of this section to the great railroad builder."

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the messy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
