Campbell Now Heads Commission. Salem, Or., June 14.—Thomas K. Campbell is now chairman of the public service commission, and Edward Ostrander its secretary. Both were elected upon the reorganization of the commission after the appointment of H. H. Corey as a member to succeed Corey was secretary of the commission and won the nomination for public service commissioner from the Eastern Oregon district in the recent primary election. Previous to this, Aitchison had tendered his resignation and Governor Withycombe appointed Corey as his successor. Ostrander is one of the experts of the commission and will continue to perform his work as such, as well as that of secretary.
