SHERRY'S

George Walsh, Hero of Fox Film "Blue Blood and Red," Has Both Kinds of Blood—at Sherry's.

A red-blooded aristocrat himself is George Walsh, who is the hero in the new Fox Western drama, "Blue Blood and Red." Fox film fans will remember him as the lover in the "Serpent" who with the strength of a wrestler tossed men about as so many matches. Walsh, young, handsome and strong, is a Jamestown University man, and a crack amateur athlete and automobile racer. He acts his parts with that wholesomeness which comes of education and athletics. On the stage he would have been a "matinee idol."

There is nothing in work too rough for Walsh—and there is nothing too gentle for him in lovemaking.
