

CHICAGO ARTISTS TO APPEAR ON CHAUTAUQUA

MISS ALICE WRIGHT BAKER, pianist and accompanist, and Miss Mary Welch, soprano, both of the Skibinsky Trio, which comes to the Chautauqua, are two artists who as a concert instrumental and vocal duo have met with wide success in the principal music centers of America. Alexander von Skibinsky, the renowned Russian violinist, was so attracted by the splendid quality of their work and the enthusiastic appreciation shown them in Chicago, where he heard them several times, that he was influenced to engage them to appear jointly with him. Each one of the members of this trio has individually been considered a star attraction. The combination is immense.

Beauchamp Is Known as the Original Humorous Philosopher

Chautauqua Patrons Call Him the Thinker Who Makes You Laugh and the Humorist Who Makes You Think

LOU J. BEAUCHAMP is the veteran humorist of two continents, beloved by the tens of thousands who have heard him or come within focus distance of the sunshine rays of his personality. The famous humorous philosopher brings to the Chautauqua a clean, healthy, wholesome message brilliantly punctuated with the punch of truth. His truth is the truth of experience, human, sympathetic. His humor cannot be described. He must be heard. Beauchamp's wit hits. It is perforated with picked points that penetrate.

Popular Ohio Judge Coming

JUDGE R. M. WANAMAKER of the supreme court of Ohio comes to the Chautauqua with an invigorating discussion of the courts. His brilliant record in the legal history of Ohio qualifies him to speak with authority. Judge Wanamaker is a stimulant, and to hear him is a tonic.

DRAMA TO BE CHAUTAUQUA FEATURE

Comus Players to Open Chautauqua With Popular Play.

"The play is the thing." To all lovers of the drama the Comus Players will prove a welcome Chautauqua innovation. They are equipped to satisfy the most critical as well as the popular taste. They will present either "Carson of the North Woods," a classic of Canadian forest life, or "Nance Oldfield," a human interest play of strong moral tone and appeal. An appropriate atmosphere of costume and setting accompany these productions. As a prelude to either of the foregoing plays selections will be presented from one of the following Shakespearean dramas: "As You Like It," "Timon of the Shrew," "Macbeth" or "Hamlet."

The personnel of this splendid company of artists is one of uniform excellence, each member enjoying a distinguished place in dramatic circles.

MISS JANET YOUNG.

Janet Young has appeared in over 100 productions in cities of the Pacific coast. She was a member of the Baker stock company of Portland for two years, and is known to theatergoers as the "Sweetheart of the Northwest."

Miss Young is wonderfully sympathetic in her work, and her interpretations are convincing. Archibald F. Redie, eminent dramatic critic and interpreter of Shakespearean roles, is the "heavy" support of the company. Mr. Redie is a graduate of the Spring Garden Institute, was formerly dean of oratory and dramatics in Valparaiso university and occupies the same position in the University of Oregon.

Roswell Bosch, whose dramatic studies in Europe were interrupted at the outbreak of the war, is a young man devoted to the uplift of the drama. He "puts it across" right.

Ralph Ash, who has appeared opposite Miss Young in many productions, takes the lead. Mr. Ash is handsome, of splendid physique and combines with the charm of the matinee idol the keenness of the student.

The Comus Players are the attraction for Chautauqua first nighters, being the first program number. They will start things going.
