"Thompson's Gooseberries Are Good"

So they all say. Why? The best known variety, Oregon Champion, expert care insuring large rapid growth, our special cleaning process, freshness of the delivered fruit—these are the main points of the story, why the famous berries, from Gooseberry Ranch, on Summerville road near Alicel, are the finest in the Valley. Some may like fresh strawberries better now. But don't forget the winter, and how nice the gooseberry sauce, the pies and especially the mixed fruit jellies will taste then. Green gooseberries jell perfectly, with no more sugar than other fruit. Can up the juice, mix later with early apples or other sweet fruit. You can't make this jelly fast enough for the children and grown-ups. It's economical, healthful, delicious. People begged for 150 gallons of our fruit last year after the big crop was gone. Order now of "The Gooseberry Man."
