WEAKER TONE IN MARKETS

VARIOUS MEAT PRICES LOWER THAN WEEK AGO.

Trading Somewhat Brisk but Prices off Color Somewhat.

Portland, June 19.—Trading in the cattle market started rather slow, but the market price was generally maintained for the good stock, although pressure and weakness was indicated for off-quality shipments.

Market for hogs started the week about even with last week's closing quotations. Early sales at North Portland were made around $8.10. There was a smaller run than the big showing of last Monday and this gave the market a steady appearance.

WANT COMMUNITY HALL.

Allice Decides on Adjunct to School Facilities.

Allice, June 20.—(Special)—At the meeting of the voters of school district No. 46—the Allice district—held yesterday the proposition of a community hall was carried by a vote of 16 to 10. The proposal is to build a public hall as an adjunct to the school and to be used for gymnasium and athletic purposes and also for a public assembly room for the accommodation of public gatherings.

VICTIM OF TICK BITE.

Baker County Woman Dies From Spotted Fever.

Baker, June 20.—Mrs. Rachel M. Finn, aged about 49 years, died early yesterday morning at St. Elizabeth's hospital, death resulting from spotted fever, contracted at Bridgeport. Mrs. Finn had been brought to Baker Thursday by W. H. Ellis, when her case became so serious that she required constant attention.

The only relative in this part of the country is a son, Joseph, 14 years of age. A married sister in California survives.

Funeral services will be held from St. Francis Cathedral at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. Rev. Father Loewer officiating. Interment will be made at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Poisonous Flowers.

Flowers of the jonquil, white hyacinth and snowdrop all possess a poisonous nature, the narcissus being also particularly deadly, so much indeed that to chew a small scrap of one of the bulbs may result fatally, while the juice of the leaves is an emetic.

The berries of the yew have killed many persons, and it is known nowadays that it is not safe to eat many peach pits or cherry kernels at once. The lobelias are all dangerous.

Lady's slipper poisons in the same manner as does poison ivy. The bulbs seem to be the most harmful. Lilies of the valley are also as much so. There is enough opium in red poppies to do mischief, and the autumn crocus. If the blossoms are chewed, causes vomiting and purging.

The leaves and flowers of the oleander are deadly, and the bark of the catalpa tree is very mischievous. The water dropwort when not in flower resembles celery and is virulent.—Country Gentleman.

Cutting Off Noses.

Rameses II. of Egypt cut off the nose of any person convicted of treason or arson. Actesanes, another Egyptian ruler, punished robbers in the same way. After each nose had been amputated back even with the bridge the culprit was sent to a colony of noseless felons, the place of banishment being known as Rhinocentum, from the nature of the punishment its colonists had undergone.

In England in 1671 Lord Coventry, then "great keeper of the British seal," had his nose cut off by order of the king because he had dared to ask some questions about an actress then playing at Drury Lane theater.

A conscript who protested openly that he had been enrolled in the army of Frederick the Great in a fraudulent manner had his nose amputated by order of that sovereign, who spoke of the punishment as an "indelible mark on the front side of the face."

Uses of Bicarbonate of Soda.

Bicarbonate of soda should always be kept in an easily accessible place in the kitchen. Applied immediately to a burn and moistened it will relieve the pain.

A pinch added to any fruits or vegetables will make them more palatable, and less sugar will be needed. Use a quarter of a teaspoonful to two quarts of fruit, fresh, or to one pound of evaporated fruit.

Fill new cooking utensils with cold water to which one teaspoonful of soda has been added and boil it. Then wash the utensils with good soap and water, dry, and they are ready for use.

Bicarbonate of soda added to the water in which old vegetables are cooked will make them green and fresh. It will also make tender a tough piece of stewing meat.

It will sweeten milk which is about to turn.—New York Sun.

Did He Was Told.

One evening, just as it was getting dusk a laborer walked down the main street of the city. Coming to a poultry dealer's place, he stopped and gazed admiringly at the fowls and game displayed on the window slab. One turkey of about fifteen pounds weight took his fancy. After running his fingers through the coins in his trousers pockets a few times he decided on having that turkey. Picking it up he entered the shop. The shopman was very busy. "Just weigh this bird for me, will ye?" said he. "Why don't you take your bird somewhere else to be weighed?" snappily replied the poultryer without looking up. "Oh, I kin do that all right," he replied, cheerfully picking the bird up and walking out with it.—London Tit-Bits.

Bukowina's Stormy History.

Bukowina, the Austro-Hungarian province, has undergone sundry political transitions. According to many Austrian authorities, it was wrested from Transylvania in the fifteenth century by Moldavia, but it not long before that formed an integral portion of the latter state, to which it belonged until it was ceded to Austria by the Turks in 1775. Bukowina, which means "Beech Land," abounds in woodland and mineral wealth and rears large numbers of cattle and horses.—London Globe.

The Puzzle.

"I wonder how Flubdub can afford an auto. Don't you?"

"No, I don't wonder how he can afford an auto. I know he can't afford an auto. But how do gazaboos like him manage to get hold of autos? That is what flabergasts me."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Shocking.

"They tell me Dulbis is in the hospital. What happened to him?"

"Oh, he saw a piece of wire lying in the street and tried to pick it up."

"Yes, and then?"

"He discovered that the wire was busy."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Very Annoying.

The eldest daughter says she wishes dishes were made of rubber so they wouldn't rattle so when maw is washing them and she has an early evening caller.—Florida Times-Union.

National Nicknames.

Just as the British talk about John Bull, the French talk about Jean Crapaud and the Russians about Ivan Ivanovitch.

Associate with men of good quality if you esteem your own reputation, for it is better to be alone than in bad company.—Washington.

"Thompson's Gooseberries Are Good"

So they all say. Why? The best known variety, Oregon Champion, expert care insuring large rapid growth, our special cleaning process, freshness of the delivered fruit—these are the main points of the story, why the famous berries, from Gooseberry Ranch, on Summerville road near Alice, are the finest in the Valley. Some may like fresh strawberries better now. But don't forget the winter, and how nice the gooseberry sauce, the pies and especially the mixed fruit jellies will taste then. Green gooseberries jelly perfectly, with no more sugar than other fruit. Can up the juice, mix later with early apples or other sweet fruit. You can't make this jelly fast enough for the children and grown-ups. It's economical, healthful, delicious. People begged for 150 gallons of our fruit last year after the big crop was gone. Order now of "The Gooseberry Man."
