ARCADE

NOW SHE IS A FACTORY GIRL.

Mary Pickford Stars in Famous Players Great Drama, "The Eternal Grind."

If you were a beautiful young girl whose sister had fallen the victim of a wealthy young chap and that same fellow were to make love to you—and if the sister followed him to your home with the intention of shooting him, would you scream and run away or would you take command of the situation? Mary Pickford took the revolver out of the girl's hand, held the man at bay with it and sent for a minister. When the reverend gentleman arrived, she concealed herself behind a curtain and held the gun to the man's back while he went through the wedding ceremony.

It all happened in "The Eternal Grind," Mary Pickford's latest big feature in which she is being starred by the Famous Players Film company on the Paramount program. It is the stellar attraction at the Arcade theatre for Friday and Saturday. In this powerful story, Mary Pickford plays the role of a factory girl who battles against frightful odds in her struggle to preserve intact the little home of which the death of her parents has made her the head.

Director John O'Brien supervised the production of the film in which Miss Pickford is supported by Loretta Blake, Dorothy West, John Bowers, Robert Cain, J. Albert Hall and others of equal prominence in the film and stage world.

Good Crop at Gooseberry Ranch.

There is only one "Gooseberry Thompson"—but one is enough to supply the valley with the finest Oregon Champion berries. His name is well known. Mrs. Thompson with her boy, her white team and her load of berries is recognized at sight and hailed with delight. The famous Gooseberry ranch is a mile northwest of Alicel—call it by Home Phone 27X1. The crop is estimated to be 1400 gallons. Standard price, 25 cents and they are going fast.—Adv. D.—6-22-16. DRAMA TO BE CHAUTAUQUA FEATURE

Comus Players to Open Chautauqua With Popular Play.

"The play is the thing." To all lovers of the drama the Comus Players will prove a welcome Chautauqua innovation. They are equipped to satisfy the most critical as well as the popular taste. They will present either "Carson of the North Woods," a classic of Canadian forest life, or "Nance Oldfield," a human interest play of strong moral tone and appeal. An appropriate atmosphere of costume and setting accompany these productions. As a prelude to either of the foregoing plays selections will be presented from one of the following Shakespearean dramas: "As You Like It," "Taming of the Shrew," "Macbeth" or "Hamlet."

The personnel of this splendid company of artists is one of uniform excellence, each member enjoying a distinguished place in dramatic circles.

Janet Young has appeared in over 100 productions in cities of the Pacific coast. She was a member of the Baker stock company of Portland for two years, and is known to theatergoers as the "Sweetheart of the Northwest." Miss Young is wonderfully sympathetic in her work, and her interpretations are convincing.

Archibald F. Redie, eminent dramatic critic and interpreter of Shakespearean roles, is the "heavy" support of the company. Mr. Redie is a graduate of the Spring Garden Institute, was formerly dean of oratory and dramatics in Valparaiso university and occupies the same position in the University of Oregon.

Roswell Dosch, whose dramatic studies in Europe were interrupted at the outbreak of the war, is a young man devoted to the uplift of the drama. He "puts it across" right.

Ralph Ash, who has appeared opposite Miss Young in many productions, takes the lead. Mr. Ash is handsome, of splendid physique and combines with the charm of the matinee idol the acumen of the student.

The Comus Players are the attraction for Chautauqua first nighters, being the first program number. They will start things going.

HERE'S CLEO AND HER NOSE-RING!

CLEO MAYFIELD

Fifth-av. now sees Cleo Mayfield and her nose ring; formerly she had only enough nerve to wear it on the stage.

It's a bejeweled affair and fits like an ear ring. The press agent of a certain show confides in our ear that Miss Mayfield is to tour the country with his outfit, but we've forgotten what show it is!

SPLENDID STALLION SOLD.

"Prince," Union Station Percheron. Bought by Baker Man.

Union, June 22.—While attending the Union Livestock show last week Frank Ebell of Baker purchased an excellent three year old Percheron stallion, "Princeton 109387," from the Eastern Oregon Experiment station.

"Prince," as he is known by his attendant, was born and raised at the State Farm. He is a colt possessing plenty of style and action, a rugged constitution, and gives every indication of developing into an excellent sire.
