OLD MAN IS SLAIN IN BED

WIFE AWAKENS BY SHOTS BUT MAN ESCAPES.

Milton Family Aroused by Shooting at Dead of Night.

Milton, Oregon, June 22.—Charles Sams, an aged man, was murdered between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning as he was sleeping in his cabin at Valley Chapel, seven miles from here on the Washington state side of the line. Two 38 caliber bullets were fired into his head. He died two hours later without regaining consciousness. The authorities of Walla Walla county have no clue to the murderer. In order to fire the fatal shots, the assailant had to reach over the body of Sams' wife who was sleeping at his side. The shots awakened her but the intruder had made his escape before she could see him. Two sons, who were sleeping in a wogan shed about 40 feet away from the cabin, were also awakened. They rushed into the house but failed to get a trace of the murderer.

The outer door to the cabin and the door leading into the sleeping room were found open. Mrs. Sams told the authorities she was sure both doors had been closed before the aged couple had retired for the night. So quietly did the intruder work in getting into the house, however, that his opening of the doors was not heard.

A coroner's jury this morning returned a verdict of death at the hands of a person or persons unknown. The motive for the murder is a mystery so far as known the victim had no enemies. There was no money or other valuables in the house so it is apparent that robbery could not have been the reason.

Sams owned property in Valley Chapel and had a ranch at Dry creek. Dr. C. W. Thomas of Milton was called but his efforts to save Sams' life proved of no avail and death came shortly after the shooting. Sams was an old timer in this neighborhood and was well known in Milton.

ARCADE

MARY PICKFORD AT HER BEST.

Famous Players Star Incomparable in Powerful Drama, "The Eternal Grind."

It seems almost unbelievable that a great star can go on eclipsing her previous performances upon the screen time after time, but Mary Pickford's appearance in the Famous Players-Paramount picture, "The Eternal Grind," which is the feature at the Arcade today and tomorrow, will unquestionably be pronounced her greatest endeavor by public and critics alike. When Miss Pickford starred in "The Foundling" it was almost universally declared to be her finest impersonation. When she followed that with "Poor Little Peppina" that was hailed as the greatest of all. But in both of these characterizations Miss Pickford appeared as a victim of circumstances—as an immature child whom fate had fastened upon as a sort of football to be kicked about at will. In these roles she won our sympathy. In "The Eternal Grind" Miss Pickford is a very mature young lady—prematurely ripened by hard work in the factory—whose indomitable will, fearlessness, resolution, ingenuity and forceful personality compel our admiration as well as our sympathy. There are big scenes in the film—big in their gripping power and in their dramatic force—which make it absorbingly interesting from start to finish. One of the most powerful is that in which Mary—the role so artfully played by the star finds that the youth who is making love to her has already betrayed her younger and more frivolous sister, Amy.

Bowel Complaints in India.

In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa, churches a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventive and cure for cholera. You may know from this that it can be depended upon for the milder forms of bowel complaint that occur in this country. Obtainable everywhere.—adv.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it falls, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"I will cheerfully say that Chamberlain's Tablets are the most satisfactory remedy for stomach troubles and constipation that I have sold in thirty-four years' drug store service," writes S. H. Murphy, druggist, Wellsburg, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.—adv.
