Popular Play to Be Presented by Comus Players

Drama to Be Presented to Chautauqua Patrons For First Time in the West

THE presentation of the Comus Players in popular and Shakespearean repertoire marks a distinct but welcome departure in Chautauqua feature attractions. Each member of this company has distinguished his or her self in the drama.
The Comus Players will present either "Carson of the Northwoods," a dramatic classic of Canadian frontier life, or "Nance Oldfield," a human interest play of strong moral and social appeal.

Community Packing Will Be Rule.

Hood River, Or., June 22.—Since the Pioneer Packing Co., the first co-operative community packing plant in Hood River, was established in 1914 in the Oak Grove district, community packing has made big strides in the valley, and this season more than a quarter of the estimated 1,000,000 boxes of fruit will be handled by such institutions.

Minister Called to Kansas City.

Eugene, Or., June 21.—Rev. Louis S. Cupp, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, the largest congregation of that denomination on the Pacific coast, has received a call from his old church at Kansas City, Mo., where he was pastor for 10 years before coming to Eugene. He announced yesterday that in all probability he will accept. If he does, he plans to close his work here about the middle of August.
