ROCK CREEK MEN QUARREL

GUN PLAY RECITED IN BAKER COURT.

J. O. Baird and William Coles Have Altercations a Plenty.

Baker, June 22.—The criminal docket of the June term of circuit court started this morning when the case against J. O. Baird, charged with pointing a gun at William Coles of Rock Creek, was called. The case against Tom Davis, which was to have been heard, was deferred owing to the non arrival of important witnesses.

Coles was the first witness, testifying that on April 29, Baird, standing at a distance of about 150 feet had pointed a gun at him. He could not hear any verbal threats being made, he said, because of the noise being made by the creek, which separated them. On April 19 also Baird had menaced him similarly, he said.

W. C. Calder, foreman of the grand jury which indicted Baird, was called to identify a letter introduced as evidence at this time, which Baird is said to have admitted writing, containing veiled threats. Leland Castor was called to testify that Baird had told him that he intended to aggravate Coles.

District Attorney Godwin handled the case for the state, Leland Finch being appointed by the court to represent the defendant.

The jury in the case is composed of J. E. Robinette, E. A. Hayes, A. R. Fairchild, Joseph Jackley, Eugene Chandler, Matt Dean, E. A. Chambers, E. B. Gaylord, H. J. Elskamp, William Caldwell, Paul Knoblauch and E. G. Phillips.

2,000 Squirrels Killed in a Week.
Baker, June 23.—What is believed to be the best record set in the county for the killing of ground squirrels, has been set by E. C. McConnell, living in the Beaver Creek section, who in one week has subtracted 2,000 from the squirrel population of the district. Mr. McConnell used both poison and his gun in getting rid of the rodent pests.

The record is considered especially exceptional, as due to the lateness of the season, there is food in plenty for the squirrels without having recourse to prepared grain or fodder.

Girls Return from Preparedness Camp

Pompton Lake, N. J., June 23.—Thirty young women of New York society started home from here today after three weeks learning the ins and outs of soldiering so that in time of need they may be a help to their country. They were under the command of Miss Candace Hewitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Hewitt and were instructed by directors supervised by General E. Z. Steever, U. S. A., retired. The Emergency Service Corps is the official title of Captain Hewitt's girls, and in their three weeks' camp they covered a course of intensive instruction, embracing from messenger service to cook and from peeling potatoes to bareback riding.

Miss Hewitt and her sister, Miss Lucretia Hewitt, were the organizers of the camp. They took their idea before a committee of prominent men and women and after careful study the training course was worked out. The committee includes Miss Anne Morgan, Mrs. Edward R. Hewitt, Mrs. Everit Macy, Miss Elizabeth Lowndes, of Rosemary Hall; Miss Spence, Henry L. Stimson, General Charles Roe, U. S. A., retired; Lieutenant Colonel William F. Schaffler, Surgeon General, N. G. N. J., and Harry B. Sedgwick. The purposes of the corps are to lead girls who have had opportunities in life to recognize their responsibilities. The course included making camp, cooking, riding, swimming, first aid and sanitation, lectures will be given in military law so that the girls may realize fully in what relation they will stand to their own and to enemy troops in time of war. Miss Hewitt laid down a list of equipment with which each young woman must provide herself. This included two pairs of waterproof shoes, three pairs of thick stockings, one pair of woolen socks, one pair of sneakers, three changes of underclothing, one set of waist garters, one pair of leather puttees, three olive drab shirts, one campaign hat, one pair of service gauntlets, one belt, two red ties, one uniform coat, two pairs of uniform breeches, one slicker, two pairs of pajamas, one sweater coat and one bathing suit. Skirts are taboo. The girls learned how to wig-wag with the general service code and semaphore code, and the mysteries of lighting beacon fires and making signal smokes—which last is no mean art in itself. Among the girl rookies were the Misses Mildred Sawyer, Rozanna Bowen, Margaret Lindabury, Mildred Rivers, Abby Morrison, Martha Gay, Helen Seton, Alice Thorne, Helen W. Green, Agnes Fowler, E. Rita Norrie, Miss Elizabeth Mosie and Elizabeth Harrison.

Nebraska Has 74 Million Bushels.

Lincoln, Neb., June 23.—Nebraska's great annual wheat crop harvest has begun. The largest wheat crop in the state's history is being gathered—such a crop as the state did not even dream of 10 years ago. Between 71,000,000 and 74,000,000 bushels of winter wheat is the estimate of the state's labor bureau, which also estimated that 7,000 extra farm hands were needed for the harvest. Besides this, some spring wheat is raised in the northern section of the state, but this amount is relatively small and its harvest will begin in two or three weeks. The Hessian fly did some damage this year as usual, but the pest was only in certain sections and there only in small spots. Less damage by the Hessian fly was done this year than last. Hail also did slight damage, some fields being completely devastated, but this loss, too, was relatively small. The wheat crop of Nebraska this year, it is estimated, will exceed that of last year by about 10,000,000 bushels.

HAZING AT WEST POINT.

A Sample of the Pranks the Cadets Played in 1860.

From a West Point cadet's letter, published in 1860 in the South Atlantic Quarterly, we learn:

"General Scott has arrived. We will review before him Monday or Tuesday. He makes West Point his headquarters during the summer. The officers in charge of the new cadets this year are making every exertion to protect them from rough treatment. Their quarters and the immediate vicinity are by special order rendered off cadet limits so that any cadet found there would be placed in arrest and treated with the same severity which he might expect were he discovered at Benny Havens.

"Three cadets have already been placed in close arrest for trifling with new cadets. One of them who threw a potato at said new cadets in the mess hall will probably be court-martialed. Notwithstanding all this vigilance, they still have their share of 'hard times.'

"The most amusing of the practical jokes was perpetrated upon them the other night by some cadets who went up to their rooms while they were dreaming of home and carried off all their clothes. The consequence was the Plebes were half of them absent from reveille; the rest presented a most ridiculous appearance. All of them without hats, some in their stocking feet, no man with his own coat on, while from the windows above the others looked down with long faces and wrapped about with blankets, terrified to death at being reported absent from reveille, but 'not even an umbrella in case of a fire.'

"Goodby, with much love to all from your Affectionate Son,
"T. ROWLAND."

Two Horses.

Is it the fast horse or the slow horse in a team that pulls the greater part of the load? The department of agricultural engineering of the Iowa College of Agriculture says it is the slower horse. It says that supposing one horse of a team is eight inches ahead of the other, the load divides in a ratio of 100 to 1000 pounds, in case the center hole in the equalizer is four inches out of line with the holes at the end of the equalizer.

The Retort Courteous.

He—One thing is sure, I don't intend to be criticized and censured because I have failed to realize your expectations. She—You misunderstand me completely. All that I have done is to express my conviction that you have more than justified my fears.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Paradoxical Content.

"I feel safe from accident on this train."
"Why so?"
"Because it is in charge of an engineer who has the reputation of being a wreckless one."—Baltimore American.

A Nickname For Barrett.

Lawrence Barrett, the tragedian, was subject to dyspepsia, and when he was suffering from that disorder he was cold and distant toward his company. One irreverent fellow always refused, however, to be suppressed. He said one day: "Just look at Cassius. He looks as solemn and righteous as if he'd swallowed the sword of justice. Let's call him the Scabbard." And the Scabbard he was—out of his hearing—for the rest of that season.

And Then Profound Thought.

She—You shouldn't squeeze my hand going out of the theater. When I squeezed back I meant you to stop. He—Me? I—why, I—I didn't touch your hand!—Judge.

Differentiation.

"Have you a good cook?"
"Oh, the cook's good enough, but the cooking is atrocious."—Baltimore American
