PERSONAL MENTION

Prof. W. E. Kipling is here from Union on a few days' business mission.

Omar Brown, a boy from Elgin, has been ordered sent to the feeble-minded school at Pendleton by the County court. Mrs. Denham of Elgin escorted him to the school yesterday, as a representative of the officials here.

Jas. G. Anson, a farmer of the Telocast section, was in La Grande on business this morning.

Lou Stoop, Elgin real estate dealer, was a business visitor in La Grande today.

Frank Akijama, a Japanese salesman, is registered at the Sommer today. He is the only Jap commercial man on the road and makes this territory but once a year. He carries Japanese made goods exclusively.

Fred Kiddle, of Island City, one of the students at U. of O. and about the last one to return, is home for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. A. Richardson have been visiting relatives the past day or two and on account of slight indisposition Mr. Richardson deferred the return trip to their farm in Lower Cove, until the first of the week.

Mrs. J. F. Phy has returned from Baker where she took part as a delegate in the Episcopal convocation held there this week.

Dr. Kirby of Elgin yesterday brought Leonard Curfman of Elgin to the Grande Ronde hospital for an operation for appendicitis.

Word received from Portland is to the effect that Mrs. Kenneth Evans, who underwent an operation there recently is suffering with other complications and is not quite as well as a few days ago.

E. E. Willard, the stock buyer, arrived in La Grande yesterday evening and today proceeded to Baker to look after business prospects in his line.

Retiring Superintendent John Girdler returned today from Eugene where he attended and was an active participant in a meeting of the school superintendents and principals for the western part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, of Union, were business visitors in La Grande this morning. They returned home on No. 6 today.

Mrs. Cora M. Davis, supreme officer of the Pythian Sisters order, was over from Union yesterday to visit the Pythian Sisters of La Grande. Mrs. Davis will preside at the supreme lodge of the sisterhood to be held in Portland next month.

Dr. Harry M. Bouvey has returned from Portland where he went to attend a convention of specialists.

Carl E. Evans, Overland dealer here, went to Baker today to fetch home some automobiles unloaded there yesterday.

Ernest Welch, a prominent furniture dealer of Baker, and his family passed through La Grande yesterday in an auto. They will make a stop at Pendleton and are headed for a trip through California, intending to make the tour by easy stages.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Palmer and family returned yesterday, having finished a 1230-mile trip by auto and being gone about three weeks, says the Baker Democrat. They went as far as Newport on Yaquina bay, where they enjoyed the beach for several days. En route they attended the Rose show at Portland. They report an enjoyable trip and found the roads and weather all that could be desired.
