

FROM EVERY TOWER—FROM EVERY HILL THROUGHOUT THE LAND RING ECHOES OF OLD LIBERTY BELL.

Tho' the first peal sounded one hundred and forty years ago, the "echo" is still distinctly heard today by the thousands, yes, millions, who honor this Anniversary of Liberty—July 4th. And the freedom of a Nation continues as an inspiration to business organization, for each one must be a nation within itself. These are days of freedom from many narrow business customs of many years gone by. FREEDOM from the long forgotten mercantile tricks. FREEDOM from advertising that bristled with thorns of falsehood. FREEDOM from bargaining and hagling over prices—one price to all always. FREEDOM of opportunities to employees to be employers. FREEDOM from evils within and evils without—the business life. Not one of us having tasted of the fruits of freedom, fought for and won through the sacrifice of lives of our forefathers, and their untold hardships—not one who would willingly turn his back upon this glorious freedom—a legacy richer than any heritage of gold.

So today we lift our voice in praise and open our hearts in thankfulness to those noble pathfinders and pioneers in Freedom— Freedom of Our Nation. Freedom of Our National Business Life. Freedom of Our Private Business Life. And you are always "free" to buy anything you want at

ARCADE

"The Heart of Nora Flynn." Now under a long term contract with the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play company, Marie Doro, beautiful and talented dramatic artist, will be seen at the Arcade tonight and tomorrow in "The Heart of Nora Flynn," a thrilling photodrama by Hector Turnbull and Jeanie MacPherson, authors of "The Cheat," and produced under the personal direction of Cecil B. DeMille, director general for the Lasky company. In this production the charming star is seen as a nurse maid in the employ of a wealthy family. How she saves the wife from disgrace although jeopardizing her own love, and how the affairs are finally adjusted, go towards making a story gripping in its intensity and unusual in its theme. Miss Doro is surrounded by a cast of unusual excellence, including Elliott Dexter, Lola May, Ernest Joy, Charles West, "Little Billy" Jacobs, Margaret George, Mrs. Lewis McCord, and other members of the Lasky all star organization. It is released on the Paramount program.
