Ladies' Ready-to Wear

work he has yet accomplished before the camera. The comedy has been pictured in a capable manner, while the producers have been unusually successful in depicting the atmosphere of early London. Good direction has brought out the best results, and excellent photography is maintained throughout.

The story concerns the mutual attraction that springs up between David Garrick, the celebrated actor, and Ada Ingot, daughter of a wealthy tradesman. Garrick first sees the girl sitting in a box while he is playing, but despite numerous attempts is unable to learn her identity. The girl's father, in an attempt to cure her of her infatuation for him and to induce her to marry Squire Richard Chivy, the man of his choice, requests Garrick to leave England. From this point the plot becomes interesting.

Farnum's portrayal of Garrick is capably conceived, and his performance, throughout especially in the scene in which he disillusiones Ada, is finely done. Winifred Kingston is a charming Ada.

Telocaset Celebrated Too.

Telocaset, Oregon, July 5.—More than 300 people participated in a "Good Fellowship Picnic," held at Telocaset July 4th. It proved a great success being thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended, thus illustrating what may be accomplished by co-operation in a small community.

A pleasing program was arranged with patriotic recitations, readings and was concluded by the singing of "America" in which all arose and joined.

This was followed by a free and bounteous spread in which all heartily co-operated.

The afternoon was taken up with foot-racing contests, tug-of-war and wrestling.

The planning mill of A. C. Hess & Sons was converted into an auditorium by decorations of flags, bunting and evergreens. A floor was arranged where a well-conducted, enjoyable dance was held in the evening in which young and old took part. A display of fireworks completed the day.

Special credit and thanks was voted the committees that had charge of arrangements. All present heartily endorsed the proposal to make this a yearly event.

Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised I decided to try them. I improved rapidly." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.
