Movie Producers Meet.

Chicago, July 12.—Here's your chance to meet your favorite movie actor on the hoof. The exposition of the Sixth Annual convention of producers and actors and actorines of the screen opened in the Coliseum here today. The convention—the business part of the meeting—closed yesterday. The exposition will continue until July 18. The movie men's exposition is to be given over to the public and the public's favorite stars. Your favorite—whether Bushman, Pickford, Chaplin, Bayne, Stewart, Clark, Dawn, or anyone of scores of others—will be here to meet you in the flesh. The players will pose and their pictures will be shown at the Coliseum within 24 hours after taking. Everybody is going to dance; public, stars, producers, exhibitors, all. Exhibitors will get acquainted with producers, the public will meet its stars; in fact it is going to be a real get-together meeting for those of, by, or for motion pictures. Each day the crowd will be taken to some motion picture plant. An organized effort to oust, or at least standardize the moving picture censor, was planned at the convention. The league plans to show why it is that the "censors are tending to put the moving picture producers out of business. If there was a single national censor over all productions, conditions would not be so bad, a motion picture-maker said today, "although we do not even sanction a national supervisor. The way it is now everybody censors us. There is a municipal supervisor, district supervisors of every size and description and by the time they get through chopping our productions we haven't anything left. We are against censorship in every form because we don't think we need it anymore than the theatre or the newspaper needs to be censored."

In the good old summer time—just now—but don't forget where you hung your overcoat.
